Feb. 10: The old saying that "Honesty pays" kept its truth with the case of our Y.B.C. Bantam bowler Ronnie Moore. Ronnie found an endorsed cheque and returned it to the rightful owner. The surprised and very grateful owner rewarded Ronnie with a handsome cash award.

There has been a few changes in the whereabouts of our 4 Steps to Stardom Tournament Zone Finals. But things are looking up and the tournament for the Bantam girls' and boys' singles, doubles and teams is February 17 in Georgetown. On February 18, the Junior boys' singles, doubles and team along with the Junior girls' team will bowl at Bramalea. The Seniors will be given their absolute time and place next Saturday.

The Pepsi-Cola Company Lim-ited are sponsoring an Eastern Canada High School Five Pin Bowling Championship for Y.B.C. members. There are three phases: Qualify in the league, win in the Zone and then the Provincial Finals. There will be a team of five girls and a team of five boys. This is one tournament that the "Pepsi Gen-eration" can really come alive in.

Birthday greetings to Ronnie Grant who turned 13 on February 13. In the Junior and Senior Division, Junior George Adams celebrated his 15 birthday on February 12, also happy birth-day to Margot Matheson who reached 13 years of age on February 13.

In the Bantam Division this week the Monkeys won one game and totals from the Skunks. Gophers did the same to Cats as did the Mice to the Dogs.
