

Andrews-Varey wedding in Georgetown Dec. 23

Holy Cross Church, Georgetown was decorated in Christmas theme for the marriage of Catherine Irene Varey and Bruce Henry Andrews at 12 o'clock noon on December 23. Candles with evergreen and red bows decorated the church columns. Baskets of red carnations, white mums and evergreen and the festive scene added a seasonal touch to the ceremony.

Father O'gay Devant officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Al Radmond was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence William Varey of R.R. 1, Georgetown. She is an elementary school teacher employed by the Georgetown Separate School Board.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Gwendolyn Andrews and the late Mr. Henry Andrews, 205 Mason Blvd. He is a secondary school teacher at Acton District High School.

man was Keith Andrews, brother of the groom, and the usher was Robert Andrews, brother of the groom.

The wedding reception was at Terra Cotta Inn.

The bride's mother wore a dark green wool knit dress with dark brown accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums. The groom's mother wore light green lace over tulle with white and silver accessories and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

Red and white candles and bolly centred the tables at the reception. The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother.

Guests were present from Acton, Milton, Georgetown, Brampton, London, Toronto, Kleinburg, Ajax and Guelph.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to New York City and New Jersey, where they attended the wedding of a college track teammate of the groom's George Germain.

For travelling, the bride wore a green wool suit with brown accessories and a corsage of mauve cymbidiums.

There were several gatherings before the wedding.

November 9, Mrs. John London, aunt of the groom, held a cup and saucer shower for relatives in Brampton. On November 17 Mrs. Jack Webster, a friend of the bride, held a miscellaneous shower at her home, R.R. 1, Inglewood.

On November 22, high school friends held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Edward Norton, 207 Mill St. East, Acton. Mrs. Stewart Cowan and Mrs. Richard Appleyard held a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Appleyard, R. R. 1, Georgetown, November 25.

On December 1, Mrs. Earl Breaux held a pantry shower at her home, 25 Knox Ave., Acton. Presentations were made by the Acton district high school staff and the Holy Cross school staff.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Stewart Cowan, a life-long friend of the bride from London, Ontario. She wore a dark green velvet gown with high empire waist and semi-A-line skirt, with a matching bow and streamers in her hair. She carried a colonial bouquet of red carnations and white chrysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The groom-

IRENE VAREY and Bruce Andrews were married in Holy Cross Church, Georgetown, on December 23. Both are teachers.

Centennial highlights answer W.I. roll call

Mrs. Mary McAuley was hostess for the March meeting of Acton Women's Institute at the home of Miss R. Clark.

The president Mrs. Lindsay opened the meeting with a poem, Recipe for Happiness. The Ode and Mary Stewart Collect followed.

Roll call was answered, what important event you remember from Centennial Year. Some thought their trip to Expo; some remembered the Chorallers, our new library, weddings; Acton fair, the Golden Age group, the Christian service after the fair and many more.

In the absence of Mrs. Fred Anderson, Miss Marjorie Hall read the minutes and treasurer's report and correspondence.

The penny sale and euchre was a very pleasing event. Several ladies expressed their wish to accept the invitation of the Banockburn W.I. to celebrate their anniversary at Limestone Presbyterian church on March 20.

All the standing committee reports are to be in next month. The topic for the meeting was "Good deeds are better than a stone memorial."

Mrs. Graham as agriculture convener spoke on the shipping and marketing of strawberries in Nova Scotia on the Beaverbrook Farms. They have 840 acres planted and do not wish so many to go to waste as in former years. She finished with a St. Patrick's verse.

Mrs. Agnew as home economics convener had a display of aprons made from dish cloths. Mrs. M. Auley as historical convener gave her talk on the first mill carrier 50 years ago.

Mrs. Graham gave a reading "Let me live in the house by the side of the road, and be a friend to many." Also one on "Good Deeds."

Mrs. Lindsay conducted an Irish contest which was won by Mrs. Lambert. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and the W.I. Grace.

The committee of the month served a dainty lunch. Miss Dorothy Simmons, courtesy convener for the month, thanked Miss Clark and Mrs. McAuley and the lunch committee for the use of their home.
