Breath of Spring in fashions featured at Rockwood show

A breath of spring filtered into the auditorium of Rockwood, centennial school last Thursday evening when the Home and School Association presented a fashion show in co-operation with Walkers of Guelph.

Models from Rockwood and district displayed new spring fashions in a variety of gay colors which kept the large audience, mostly feminine, but included males, interested.

Heather Benham, Kris Anderson, Mary Lou Kelly, Susan Tosh, Kimberley Benham, Ronnie McRae, Dale Hamilton and Ken Ostrander modelled younger children's fashions with the aplomb of professionals.

Smart new designs for young moderns were modelled by Edith Durose, Anne Benham, Sue Ellis, Myra Benham, Lois Hamilton, Hazel Hamilton, Catherine Meredith, Helen Maltby, Ina Petty, Greta McPhedran, Eva Stevenson, and Martha Reed.

Styles for older women were shown by Mrs. Brace and Mrs. Gallatly.

Mrs. Myra Ennis, Walker fashion co-ordinator, was the commentator on a stage decorated like a fashionable store window. Models displayed their clothes and left the stage through the centre of the audience, giving everyone a chance to see the fashions close at hand.

Program convener was Mrs. R. Law, social conveners Mrs. A. Kelly and Mrs. J. Knegt.

Door prizes were won by Wayne Anderson, Mrs. K. Stevenson, Jacqueline Gooyers and Mrs. M. McPhedran.
