

Hairpieces, fashions on display on Monday at Elizabeth-Lo salon

A crowd of over 80 enjoyed the wig demonstration and short fashion show at the Elizabeth-Lo beauty salon Monday evening. The presentation was staged in the basement of the shop to accommodate the crowd.

Shop owner Miss Burns White and her mother, hosted the evening's program.

Jim Parson, Hamilton from Keys Beauty sales, assisted by a hair stylist, "Miss Joanne" demonstrated the hairpieces on willing local models Adele Cleland, Teresa Marzo, Bev Dennis, Mrs. Tom Perkins, Pat Wheeler and Anne Thomson.

Pat Wheeler, Churchill Road, won the lucky draw for a wiglet. Winners of three shampoos and sets were Mrs. Priest, Mrs. Thomas Lazenby and Mrs. Willard Halladay.

To complement the wig display a fashion show of spring styles concluded the evening's program. Mrs. Joyce Carpenter, local representative for Jay Fashions, commented on smart spring styles which were worn by Mrs. Alice Hatfield, Mrs. Bruce Kresler, Trudy Gordon, Mary Fran Marcoux and Marianne Coles.

Tea, coffee and cookies were served afterwards as the many attending talked over the attractive showings.

Children's worker speaks Mission Circle Thankoffering

Miss Karen Tucker, children's worker at Eastwood Centre, was the special speaker for the Baptist Mission Circle Thankoffering held Monday evening in the church. Miss Tucker is a teenager who worked at Eastwood

Centre for summer employment a few years ago and became so fascinated with the work that she took further training to fit her for fulltime service.

She showed slides of the church and buildings where children and youth groups meet and where clothing and canned goods are handed out to the needy.

Miss Tucker told of the many ways of showing love and understanding to children who come from crowded and broken homes. Janice Harris introduced the speaker and Rev. Gammon thanked her.

Marg Landsborough gave a devotional thought, Crosses At Reduced Prices, Frances Feltham and Jessie Coles sang a duet entitled, "If Jesus Goes With Me," which was very much enjoyed.

Prayers for Home and Foreign Missions work were given by Harriet Holmg and Norma Bellis. Marg Bellis acted as accompanist for the hymns. Ushers were Frances Feltham and Irene Lott.

Visitors attended from Georgetown as well as local churches. Everyone gathered in the basement of the church for a social time at the close of the program.

Wearing of sari demonstrated to I.O.D.E. by Indian speaker

Mrs. Grace Reed of Guelph was hostess to the Duke of Devonshire chapter of the I.O.D.E. for their April meeting Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Lidka, regent, conducted the short business meeting when it was decided the chapter would hold their annual Treasure Mart on May 31.

Mrs. Holmes, services at home and abroad committee, reported a sale for Eskimo children is nearly completed and reminded members to add their donations.

Instead of donating books to the school libraries this year it was decided to donate children's books to the public library instead.

Mrs. Young introduced Mrs. Sandhu of India, who is a librarian at the University of Guelph and whose husband is a professor of sociology at the university.

Mrs. Sandhu showed slides of India and spoke of the changes in the past few years, what is being done about birth control and the difficulties of building schools in remote areas.

Mrs. Sandhu demonstrated the secret of putting on a sari, using Mrs. Holmes as a model. The sari is six yards long and 44 inches wide, the one demonstrated was of red figured silk. Mrs. Sandhu wore a peach colored sari in figured sheer material, very attractive with her dark hair and coloring. Mrs. Beatty presented her with a gift on behalf of the chapter.

Brampton Presbyterial meets in Knox church, Acton, Mar. 27

Faith of our Future was the theme of the bi-monthly meeting of the Brampton Presbyterial when it met on March 27, in Knox Presbyterian Church Acton.

Mrs. A. L. Coxhead of Clarkson, president of Brampton Presbyterial opened the meeting with a few remarks about the work that lay ahead and stressed the need for co-operation for a successful year. This was followed by the singing of hymn "God of Mercy" with Mrs. O. Moran of Acton at the piano.

The worship service was conducted by three ladies of the Evening Group Auxiliary of Acton, Mrs. Mary Graham, Mrs. E. Masters and Miss Roswell. These ladies were introduced by Mrs. Anderson, president of the W.M.S. Afternoon Group of Knox Church Acton. This devotional period was closed with the singing of hymn "O for a Faith that will not shrink."

Items of business were discussed during the morning and afternoon sessions.

Reports were read or given by all the secretaries.

An encouraging report from Synodical showed an increase in membership in both evening and afternoon groups.

All Glad Tidings secretaries are asked to make a special effort to acquaint every woman in the congregation with the magazine thus arousing interest and increasing the number of subscriptions.

Mrs. Adair of Erindale, Supply Secretary, reported that T-shirts and overalls, sizes 2 and 4, would be needed for the bala and that perhaps some of the children's groups would like to take this on as a project.

A bale of summer clothing will be shipped to Shoal Lake in June.

Articles are to be brought to Brampton at the April meeting or delivered to Mrs. Adair's home. Clothing is to be for children as well as adults with a special request for women's dresses in large sizes.

Mrs. Thompson of Brampton Presbyterial Historian, is eagerly awaiting to hear from more of the local W.M.S. groups regarding their history.

Mrs. Coxhead, president, was appointed representative to Presbytery.

Instead of a Spring Rally for girls' work there will be a Fall Work Shop for the work among girls.

Suggestions were made that the form for the annual report of the various secretaries be improved.

Mrs. McBurney, president of Tweedsmuir W.M.S. Orangeville; Mrs. McNeill Orangeville; Mrs. Wylie, Grand Valley; Mrs. Brown, Erin; Mrs. Hendry, Port Credit; and Mrs. Coxhead were appointed as a committee to plan the Fall Rally to be held in Tweedsmuir Presbyterian Church September 25.

The April meeting is to be held in Brampton.

A number of good books were on display and Mrs. Sandals of Brampton, Literature Secretary, as usual gave a very informative resume on a number of the books which encouraged all to inspect the display more thoroughly and with keener interest.

The guests were welcomed to Knox, Acton by Mrs. R. M. MacDonald and the president, Mrs. Fred Anderson.

W.M.S. finances manse improvement

Mrs. William McIntyre, the president, presided for the March meeting of Knox Presbyterian Ladies' Aid. Her thought for the day was a timely message on the coming of the Easter season. The opening hymn, Come to the Savior, was sung. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given and correspondence read.

The business included arrangements for the Golden Wedding to cater for on the Saturday, also the anniversary dinner for the Lakeside Chapter IODE a week later. More banquets and weddings are reported for the future.

Mrs. McLeod reported one more quilt has been completed.

The manse committee reported on a plan to install a two-piece washroom at the manse on the main floor. This project is in charge of the managers with the Ladies' Aid looking after the financing.

A motion was passed to purchase two serving carts for use in catering. Several other suggestions were discussed but no action taken. The meeting concluded with a worship service with the scripture taken from the 61st chapter of Isaiah read by Mrs. McIntyre with Mrs. John Wilson leading in prayer. Following the closing hymn all repeated the Lord's Prayer. A period of social fellowship was enjoyed.

Mothers discuss money for trip

On Tuesday, March 26, the Scout and Guide mothers held their monthly meeting and were very pleased to have 26 present. It was emphasized at the meeting that all mothers in the movement are welcome to attend the regular meetings which are held the last Tuesday of each month, at the Scout Hall at 8:30 p.m.

A discussion on ways to raise money to help the Cubs towards a trip was led by cub leader Mrs. Dorothy Jordan.

Plans were made for a big sale April 20 along with a draw on a 22" doll.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Forbes, who has had much experience with the Brownies and Guides in the past, was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

50th anniversary

About 125 are expected to attend the 50th anniversary dinner of Lakeside chapter I.O.D.E. on Saturday. The special event is being held in Knox Presbyterian church and provincial president Mrs. W. R. Morrison and the provincial Echoes secretary Mrs. G. Anderson will be guests.

Charter members who will be present are Mrs. Perry Watson, Mrs. Harvey Walters, Mrs. James Adamson and Mrs. Daniel Taylor, and guests will include the first regent and many former members and Duke of Devonshire chapter members.
