Choraliers in Legion film

The first showing of The Royal Canadian Legion's latest film is scheduled for Pentleton during the national convention which starts on May 26.

Running to 28 minutes, the colored film offers a sampling of the diverse activities of the Legion's 2,000 branches. These range from Highland dancing in Nova Scotia to a rodeo in Stettler, Alberta. Acton's Choraliers will also appear in a segment filmed in Tillsonburg last year.

Theme of the film is remembrance in action; it depicts how veterans consider service to others as a form of daily remembrance. Written and directed by Norman Shannon, it was produced by AKO productions and features an original musical score.

More tractors in Iowa state than Canada

There are more tractors in Iowa than in all of Canada, now Rotarian Howard Coles told fellow club members Tuesday in his classification talk. Mr. Coles is sales manager for Allied Farm Equipment at St. Marys. In his excellent, informative talk he also told the group it costs as much to ship a tractor across Lake Ontario as it does to ship it from the United Kingdom to China.

A report was given on the very successful dance held in the band hall earlier this month. There were 54 couples in a wide great age range, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the evening. The Rotary ladies prepared the buffet supper.

With the finesmaster absent and the coffers a little light as a result, Dick Weatherall was appointed assistant finesmaster.

Jim Ledger and Dave Manos reported with pride they had managed to sell one of the Johnny on the Spots which the club has had since fall fair time. However, the club is losing an attendance competition with Georgetown and faces having to provide a steak dinner. There were 19 members present.

Accident in lot at hotel Saturday

Kenneth Woodman, 61 Eastern Ave., Acton, struck another car while pulling out of the Dominion Hotel parking lot Saturday at 5:50 p.m. The parked car was owned by David Behn, Toronto, and damaged to the left rear fender amounting to $15. Acton O.P.P. investigated.

Choraliers provide musical background for county film

Background music for the new Halton County industrial film, "The Man and the Boy" was supplied by the Acton Legion Choraliers and Oakville Citizens' Band. Representatives from both organizations and the Burlington Boys' Band, which also appeared, were at the film's premiere showing. They were introduced to the 135 guests at the county building after the film was shown. Leader George Mussette and Hugh O'Rourke attended as Choralier representatives.

Scenes from Acton and district included in the 25 minute film included the Fall Fair, shots of Fairy Lake and explosions at Acton Limestone Quarries.

There were also scenes in the Esquimaux woods and shots of the Bruce Trail.

Particular favourite of the producers was the Kolso Conservation Area. Mayor Les Dube spoke to the gathering conveying Acton's appreciation for inclusion in the film and mentioned how proud and pleased he was with the music sung by the Choraliers. Their harmony added much to the film's balance.

Ricky Dube, a 19-year-old Milton youth was the film's "star". Although he didn't have a speaking part — a narrator does the talking — Rick played the part of a high school student leaving school, and recalling his youth in rural Halton and contemplating his future in the county industrial picture.

This was the third accident of the week involving one moving car and one parked car.

POET'S CORNER

GENTLEMAN OF THE YEARS

By David E. Cohen

Who is this lowly figure gay
Who takes upon himself each day
To clarify the atmosphere
And keep our homes so bright and clear?

Who is it, come rain or storm,
Braves yet the snows of winter's morn,
Coming to us through hall or street
Making a glory of our street?

And who is it in blating weather,
When we are seeking shade together,
Cares not about the blistering
sun,
Sees that his lowly job is done?

Right on the spot, when needed
most,
Let us together drink a toast,
Or celebrate, what way we can,
Our friend — The local garbage man.

Hits parked car
