Wishing rainbow well and at Ospringe graduation banquet

Graduates of Ospringe Public School enjoyed a banquet held in their honor last Friday night in the school gym. The theme was "Somewhere over the rainboy", and one wall was draped by a glant paper rainbow leading to a wishing well at a corner of the gym. The program opened with O Canada led by Brenda Bruce.

Rev. Herbison led in grace. Following the meal, Linds Mc-Kenzie of R.R. 1, Acton, spoke to the students. Miss McKenzie is a past graduate of the school, now attending High School. She stressed the adjustments one has to make entering high school and the need for higher education.

By the time you graduate from public school, you may have become a pretty big frog in a small puddle. Everyone know you, you were an upper-classman, and the younger pupils looked up to Miss McKenzie went on to explain briefly the high school system and passed on several hints about how to study and make use of the facilities of a larger school.

"Above all, don't let anything or anyone keep you from staying in school until you graduate.
