

Honeymoon trip to east coast follows Andrews-Norton vows

In a double-ring ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church, Barbara Louise Norton became the bride of David Keith Andrews. The Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiated at four o'clock, Saturday afternoon, July 20 and the church was decorated with standards of tall pink and white gladiolus.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Norton, Church St., Acton and the groom the son of Mrs. Gwen Andrews, Mason Blvd., and the late Henry Andrews.

The bride wore a cage gown of silk organza featuring a yoke and brief sleeves of Guipure lace, with lace edging the hemline and the sweeping chapel train which flowed from the shoulders.

A spray of lily-of-the-valley and tiny organza bows held her shoulder length veil with scalloped edge. Her bouquet was white gladi with a detachable corsage of pink roses.

For "something old" she wore her grandmother's engagement ring for the ceremony.

The four bridal attendants, all dressed in berry pink were Linda Thompson, Guelph, a friend; Mary Pearce, Georgetown, a cousin; Beverly Norton, Acton, a cousin; and Peggy Lee Valby, Winnipeg, a cousin.

Their pink gowns of chiffon over taffeta in Empire style were accented with a floral band in the same shade and featured floating chiffon panels at the back.

"Gladmellas" - formed by the joining of white and pink-shaded gladiola petals - formed their cascade bouquets. Their headpieces were also of pink and white gladmellas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Groomsmen were the groom's brother Bruce Andrews; ushers were Norman Smith, David Watson and Bob Andrews.

At the reception at the Music Centre, the wedding party received guests from Winnipeg, Sarnia, Listowel, Chippewa, Hamilton, Blyth, Brampton, Toronto, Guelph, Milton, Limehouse, Georgetown and Acton.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Norton wore a pale green coat and dress ensemble with beige accessories and yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a rose chiffon dress with white accessories and white roses.

To cut the wedding cake, the bride used the same knife her parents had used to cut their cake.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to the east coast and the bride chose a brown and white coat and dress ensemble and white accessories for travelling.

They are making their home at 14 Draper St., Georgetown. The bride is employed at C.I.A.G. offices in Guelph and the groom at the P.L. Robertson plant in Milton.

Before the wedding, the bride was honored at several gatherings.

Fellow employees made the presentation of a set of utility knives.

Mrs. H. Ritchie was hostess for a pantry shower; Mrs. R. Lattimer, Limehouse and Mrs. Linda Thompson, Guelph, held miscellaneous showers; Mrs. John London, Brampton, gave a cup and saucer shower and Mrs. David Dills held a "hot and cold" shower.

Fourth baby buffalo born

Population figures are really on the move at the Rattlesnake Point conservation area these days.

Halton Region Conservation Authority wildlife technician Frank Timmerman reports the fourth baby buffalo, a male, was born last week; and one of the elk has had an offspring for close to two months.

Since the mother hid the young elk, it was not discovered until recently.

There are, however, other ways of becoming part of the Rattlesnake beast community.

A small white-tailed deer recently vaulted over the fence into the 70-acre compound and is getting acquainted with his new neighborhood.

Clarke-Nodwell marriage solemnized in Guelph church

Arrangements of pink and white gladiolus formed the floral setting at Westminster St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Guelph, for the marriage of Judith Minella Nodwell and Robert James Clarke. Rev. W. C. Nicholson was officiating clergyman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Nodwell, Eleanor Court, Guelph. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Clarke of R.R. 3, Acton.

N.E. Brydges was organist and Mrs. W. Dulop sang O Perfect Love and The Wedding Prayer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a full length A-line peau de sole gown of Chantilly lace. The low back featured a large satin bow and a semi-detached four tiered train of Chantilly lace. The bride's four-tiered scalloped nylon tulle veil was held in place by a large satin rose headpiece with petals of peau de sole. The petal tips featured a single lily-of-the-valley.

She carried a cascade bouquet of deep red sweetheart roses with trailing ivy and rosebuds.

Miss Anna Nodwell, Don Mills, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Patricia Rieder of Guelph and Miss Yolanda Wiener, Brampton, as friends of the bride and Miss Marcia Nodwell, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

They were gowned alike in full-length gowns of mint green peau de sole featuring a train trimmed with a delicate mint green lace. Their headpieces were a peau de sole puffed bow, and a two-tiered nylon tulle veil of mint green. Their bouquets were white daisies.

Miss Shelley Lee Nodwell, the younger sister of the bride was flowergirl. Her dress and headpiece were replicas of the bridesmaids. She carried a basket of daisies.

The best man was Barry Clarke of Hamilton, brother of the groom. The ushers were Ronald Nodwell, Fergus, brother of the bride, Donald Jackson, Erin, a friend of the groom and Master Robert Nodwell, younger brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride greeted the guests in an ensemble of deep pink lace with matching accessories. Her corsage was white sweetheart roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a robin's egg blue ensemble with white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Two bank employees married, both transferred to Sarnia

Two Bank of Nova Scotia employees, Beverly Ann Anderson and Marvin Burgess, were married in Trinity United Church, Acton, at four o'clock May 25. The bride, daughter of Acton branch manager Chester Anderson and Mrs. Anderson, and the groom both worked in the branch here. They are now both employed in Sarnia, the groom with the main office and the bride in another branch.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Burgess of Hampton, New Brunswick.

Rev. Gordon Turner officiated at the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. Frank Oakes played the organ. White and yellow mums decorated the church.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white peau de sole with A-line skirt and circular chapel train falling from the Empire waist. A short, scalloped Chantilly lace jacket with lily-point sleeves topped the gown.

A headpiece of tulle petals and seed pearls held her four-tier scalloped waist length veil. Her cultured pearls were the gift of the groom.

She carried a cascade bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Her father gave her in marriage.

Wearing orange ice gowns in similar style were the bride's three attendants. Her maid of honor was Nellie Hulsman, Acton, a friend, and the bridesmaids were Bonnie and Elizabeth Smith, Thornhill, cousins.

Their floor-length gowns of orange ice peau de sole were topped with Chantilly lace jackets with short sleeves. Their headpieces were orange ice petals with seed pearls and short veils.

They wore cultured pearls, the gift of the bride, and carried cascades of white mums.

Groomsmen were Douglas Hinchberger, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Raymond Burgess, brother of the groom, and Neil Anderson, brother of the bride.

The reception was held at Acton Music Centre.

Mrs. Anderson wore for her daughter's wedding a two-piece suit of frosted mint green brocade with matching accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias.

The groom's mother chose a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

The couple took a wedding trip to New Brunswick, and for travelling the bride wore a two-piece green suit with shrimp scarf, beige accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

English Youth band concert

Local music lovers will have the chance to hear the world famous Sutherland International Concert Band in the Milton fair grounds next Sunday afternoon.

The young musicians, range in ages from 13 to 21 and are all residents of the town of Sutherland in Northern England. There are 32 boys and four girls in the group under the direction of Bandmaster E. Camsoy.

Since their formation four years ago, the band has an incredible list of accomplishments.

They have been on tour in Norway and West Germany, made guest appearances on the B.B.C., and done recording sessions for Radio Durham. At the top of the list is a first place win in the Adult Brass Band League, an English competition in which they were the first youth band allowed to enter.

A silver collection is to be taken to help cover expenses. In case of bad weather the concert will go on in the Milton arena.
