

MR. AND MRS. DAVID SHANNON were married Saturday, July 6, at Trinity United Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Duby, 105 Bower Ave. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shannon, R.R. 1, Acton. (Adams Photography, Georgetown)

Satin, lace and talisman roses for Duby-Shannon wedding

Judith Mary Duby became the bride of David Edward Shannon in a double-ring ceremony at Trinity United Church July 6.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Duby of Bower Avenue, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shannon of R.R. 1, Acton.

It was truly a family affair for the Dubys. Rev. Lawrence Duby, a cousin of the bride, conducted the ceremony assisted by Rev. Allan McKensie. The bride's uncle, Mayor Les Duby, sang the Twenty-third Psalm and the Wedding Prayer during the service. Organist was Dr. George Elliot.

The bride wore a white sheath gown of French-embossed satin with a nylon sheer yoke and bell sleeves. The bottom of the dress had a scalloped border of lace with Alcon lace around the neck and the sleeves. The floor-length veil was trimmed with matching appliques of lace. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses with white stephanotis.

The matron of honor Mrs. Robert Duby of Oakville, sister-in-law of the bride, and bridesmaids Heather Tennant of Georgetown, cousin of the bride, and Nancy Duby, sister of the bride, were dressed alike in floor-length orange-ice gowns of chiffon over taffeta. They wore empire style with bows on the shoulders. Each wore matching headpieces and shoes, and carried miniature carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, William Shannon, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Ushers were Robert Duby, brother of the bride, and David Lloyd, friend of the groom.

Following the service, a reception for the 99 guests was held in Luxton Memorial Hall. The tables were decorated with talisman roses.

The bride's mother wore a coat and dress ensemble of pow-

Omeme Wedding of local interest

Mr. Orrie Lamb and his son, Mr. Walter Lamb, were guests at the wedding in Omeme United Church of Morag Anne Gray and Murray Henderson.

The groom is a nephew of Mr. Lamb's. His father, well-known in Acton several years ago, is the Rev. James Henderson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gray.

The bride and groom are both on the teaching staff of the Omeme public school.

The reception was held in the church parlors.

Mary Kay Gibbons, Brian Martin wed in St. Joseph's

White gladioli and ferns decorated St. Joseph's church, Acton on Saturday afternoon, August 10, for the marriage of Mary Catherine (Mary Kay) Gibbons and Brian William Martin. Father V.J. Morgan officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, a teacher at St. Bernadette's Separate school in Kitchener, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil W. Gibbons, 74 Main St. S., Acton.

The groom, a graduate of the University of Waterloo is a mechanical engineer with Clara Bros., Preston. He is the son of Mrs. Margaret Martin, Kitchener.

Mrs. Lillian Bradshaw played the organ for the ceremony and Mrs. R. Arlic sang Mother Dear, O Pray for Me; O Lord I am not Worthy and Ave Maria.

The bride wore an Empire line gown of white silk shantung under a Gulpure lace coat, its full train trimmed with embroidered daisies. Her headpiece was a band of matching Gulpure lace over linen, holding her shoulder length bouffant veil.

She carried white roses and stephanotis.

The three bridal attendants were Mrs. T. C. Cakebread of Downsview, matron of honor; Mrs. J. Ford, Kitchener and Mrs. G. Kennedy, Niagara Falls, as bridesmaids.

Their turquoise gowns were of silk-finished shantung in Empire styling with bow-trimmed floor-length trains. Bands of yellow roses formed their headpieces. They carried yellow roses and white carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, David Martin, brother of the groom, was groomsmen and the ushers were John Martin, brother of the groom and Denis Gibbons, brother of the bride.

The dinner after the ceremony and evening reception were held in the Centennial Room of the Breslau Hotel. The bride's
