

Janice Wagner, Paul Murr wed in Baptist church on June 22

LEAVING ACTON BAPTIST church following Douglas Murr. The bride is the former Janice their marriage June 22 are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wagner.

Janice Lynne Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wagner, 43 Willow St., Acton, and Paul Douglas Murr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Murr, 85 Mill St., Acton and formerly of Huntsville, were married June 22 in Acton Baptist church. The three o'clock, double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. Gammon. The church was decorated with baskets of white shasta mums and yellow gladioli.

Charles Landsborough played the organ.

The bride wore a floor length Grecian styled gown of white organza over peau de soie with high yoke and sleeves of Guipure lace. The long organza train fell from the yoke line and the hemline of the gown was trimmed with Guipure lace.

Tiny organza roses and crystal droplets held her four-tiered veil of tulle illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Warren Wagner, Peterborough.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Florence Wagner, Peterborough, sister-in-law of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Lois Nirenberski of Richmond Hill, sister of the groom and Miss Irene De Vries, Acton, a friend.

Their identical gowns were in mint green silk twill trimmed with Guipure lace. From the shoulders sweeping fullness extended to the hemline. Flat bows of matching lace formed their headresses. Their colonial bouquets were of shasta mums.

Gary Murr, Moffat, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

The ushers were Charles Murr, Huntsville, brother of the groom and Dave Ryder, Acton a friend.

After the ceremony dinner was served at the Music Centre followed by a dance and buffet.

The bride's mother received the guests, wearing a pink carved brocade coat and dress ensemble, matching hat and shoes, white accessories and corsage of deep pink carnations.

Master of ceremonies F. Wildfong, Hespeler, uncle of the bride, read telegrams and messages from relatives in Calgary, and Manitoba and friends in Holland.

Friends and relatives attended from Acton, Brampton, Brantford, Breslau, Huntsville, Peterborough, Toronto to Richmond Hill, Bracebridge, Moffat, Preston, Hespeler, Galt, Guelph, Kitchener, Burlington, Ottawa, Whitby, Parry Sound, Milverton and Port Colborne.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Montreal, the bride wearing a princess line coat and dress ensemble of multi-colored linen, yellow accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

They are living at 158 Mill St., Acton.

The groom will return in the fall to Ryerson Polytechnical Institute as a third year student in business administration. Both are presently employed at Force Electric Products.

Showers for the bride were given by Mrs. Joyce Palubski, Kitchener; Mrs. S. Sinclair and Miss Sandra Sinclair, Acton; Mrs. Ester Wildfong, Hespeler; Mrs. H. De Vries and Miss Irene De Vries, Acton and Mrs. B.

A special edition of the Milton Champion is being printed next week all about the Ontario Jamboree. This week's Milton paper also has many more pictures of the Jamboree than the Acton paper, for those who are interested. Champions are on sale at the Free Press plant or stationery store.

Fellow employees at Force Electric made a presentation. The groom was guest of honor in Guelph at a gathering held by a number of Acton friends and a classmate from Toronto.

Wedge-MacSwain wedding vows in United church on July 26

In a double-ring ceremony at Acton United church, Marlee Isabel MacSwain became the bride of Philip Gordon Wedge. The Rev. A.H. McKenzie performed the ceremony at six o'clock on July 26, and the church was decorated with vases of gladiolas and carnations in red and white to match the colors of the bridal bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester H. MacSwain, 291 Queen St., Acton, and is employed at P.L. Robertson Ltd., Milton. The groom, an employee of Ontario Steel in Milton, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wedge, 36 Main St. S., Acton.

The bride wore a traditional gown of Chantilly lace with sabrina neckline and long lilypoint sleeves, its tiered, hooped skirt falling into a chapel train. Her crown-shaped headpiece decorated with pearls and a rhinestone droplet held a double-tiered, shoulder length veil.

She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and white stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Darlene Brown, the bride's cousin. Bridesmaids were Greta Wedge and Joan Nellis. Flower girl was Sharon Hitchcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hitchcock. The attendants wore berry pink chiffon sheaths with matching lace trim at the waist. Capes of matching chiffon fell from collars of lace. Delicate hooped skirts and flowerlets held their tulle veils, and they carried pink carnations accented with white net.

The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Groomsman was his brother, Clifford Wedge, and the ushers were Arnold Phee, cousin of the bride, and Wayne Gordon, cousin of the groom.

The reception after the ceremony was held in the parish hall, Acton.

The bride's mother chose an aqua blue chiffon dress with white accessories and had a corsage of yellow carnations accented with gold ribbon.

The groom's mother wore a lime-green sheath with matching lace jacket, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The couple took a short trip to Niagara Falls. Leaving, the bride wore a two-piece green and white checked suit, with accessories and yellow and bronze baby mums.

Guests were present from Georgetown, Brantford, Newcastle and Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Wedge are living in Milton.

The matron on honor, Darlene Brown held a miscellaneous shower for the bride at her home on June 24. A pantry shower was given by Mrs. Freda Gordon and Mrs. G. Currie on June 26.

MR. AND MRS. BRIAN MARTIN were married in St. Joseph's church, Acton, August 10. The bride is the former Mary Kay Gibbons. The couple are living in Kitchener.

Mixed summer flowers decorated St. John's United church, Georgetown, for the marriage of June Marie O'Gorman and Terence John Peters. Rev. R.O. Scriven performed the double-ring ceremony Saturday afternoon, July 13.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. O'Gorman of R. R. 2, Rockwood. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Peters of 22 Langstone Cres., Georgetown. Both are employed at Northern Electric, and they are living in Georgetown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie with lace tiered overskirt and sleeves. A mother-of-pearl and sequin tiara held her tiered net veil. The groom's mother made the bride's gown and headress.

She carried a bouquet of a cross of white mums surrounded by red rosebuds and fern.

In rainbow colors of yellow, rose, green and mauve, her attendants wore her sister Stella O'Gorman as maid of honor, with sisters Joan and Brenda O'Gorman and Pat Peters, Georgetown, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids.

Their gowns were of chiffon over taffeta, and they carried bouquets of baby mums in yellow, rose, green and mauve. Their headresses, gloves, and shoes were in matching shades.

The groomsman was Paul Martin, Streetsville, a friend, and the ushers were Robert O'Gorman, brother of the bride, Roy Nellis, Acton and John Stringa, Georgetown.

B. Shitubol was soloist. The reception in the evening was held at the band hall, with guests present from Acton, Georgetown, Toronto, Guelph, Streetsville, Rockwood and Brampton.

The groom's grandmother attended, having arrived from England just two days before. The bride's brother wore his uniform for the wedding, home from Cadet Camp at Ipperwash.

The bride's mother wore light blue floral chiffon over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of white mums and blue carnations.

The groom's mother wore blue with a chiffon overdress of pink and blue, matching accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

Atlantic City was the destination of the couple when they left on their honeymoon. Going away, the bride wore a pink and tan floral dress, white accessories, and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

They are making their home in Georgetown.

Miscellaneous showers were held for the bride by Mrs. A. Peters, Georgetown and Miss Stella O'Gorman, Guelph.

JUNE O'GORMAN and Terence John Peters were married July 13 in St. John's United Church, Georgetown.
