20th anniversary of Ukrainian Youth Association observed with mass, music, dances at Camp Weselka

IT'S WONDERFUL the way our communities are getting together", Acton reeve Bert Hinton told a crowd of 5,000 Sunday, August 25, at the Ukrainian camp east of Acton. He was speaking in place of Mayor Les Dudy. He expressed the hope "the Acton children in the summer recreation program and the boys and girls at camp might join for games and competitions next year. (Staff Photo)

MUSIC OF THE UKRAINE delighted the audience of Ukrainian descent at Camp Weselka's closing program. It's hoped this brass band will play again at Acton fall fair this September. Camp Weselka on the fourth line had close to 600 boys and girls from all over southern Ontario attending two three-week sessions. There are five in command of the camp and about 60 on the staff. The camp has been in operation near Acton about 15 years. New backdrop on the outdoor stage depicts the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Ukrainian Youth Association. (Staff Photo)

NEW BACKDROP for the outdoor stage at Camp Weselka depicts the 20th anniversary of the Ukrainian Youth Association. Mass was sung at an outdoor altar here in the morning, family groups picnicked together and then enjoyed the program of songs, dances and recitations in the afternoon. Above, the girls' choir sings. (Staff Photo)

MEN'S CHOIR in white shirts, turquoise trousers and red leather boots, entertain the crowd at Camp Weselka. Rain brought an end to

ENTHUSIASM of the Ukrainian dancers spread to the appreciative audience at the camp east of town on the fourth line. Families were picking up boys and girls after the last three-week camp session. (Staff Photo)
