

Mary Lea Lovell, Milton Ball wed at Alton Baptist church

Standards of pink gladioli and white pom poms made a beautiful setting for the double-ring ceremony uniting in marriage Mary Lea Lovell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lovell, Erin and Milton Wallace Ball, son of Mrs. Ball and the late John E. Ball of Acton, at Alton Baptist Church.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Fullard of Trenton, uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. Russell Chery of Erin, friend of the bride and groom.

The organist, Raymond Holt of Toronto, played the wedding music. During the signing of the Register, Miss Bonnie Beer of Alton sang the "Lord's Prayer," and during the reception, "First Place" and "Bless This House."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire-styled gown of hand-cut Chantilly lace featuring long tulle sleeves and an A-line skirt; an attached Chantilly lace chapel train fell from the scooped neckline. The free-flowing illusion veil was held in place by a pearl and crystal crown. She carried a cascade of red roses, white stephanotis and baker fern.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Irene Wheeler of Glen Williams, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Beer, Alton; Mrs. Carol Seyler, Orangeville, friends of the bride, and Mrs. Frances Thomas, Port Credit, sister of the groom. They were dressed alike in floor length gowns of peach-coral peau-de-soie, cut in princess lines with a scooped neckline and cap sleeves. Their head pieces were puffs of tulle and ribbon bows to match the dresses. They carried crescent-shaped bouquets of white and aqua pom poms.

Misses Susan and Debbie Hunter of Terra Cotta, cousins of the bride, wore street length dresses similar to those of the bridesmaids, and carried small nosegays of white and aqua pom poms with flowing white streamers.

Master Robert Hunter of Terra Cotta, cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law Glandon Thomas of Port Credit. The ushers were Bill Hunter, Terra Cotta; Hugh Hunter, Burks Falls, and Bruce Seyler, Orangeville.

For the reception at Hilltop Lodge, Erin, the bride's mother received her guests in a pink shantung silk dress with an attached lace bodice, matching pink hat and white accessories. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a multi-colour silk knit dress with bone-white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white and silver carnations.

For a honeymoon trip to British Columbia the bride donned a yellow A-line linen dress with navy accessories, and corsage of deep pink carnations.

The bride and groom are residing at 51 Nelson Court, Acton.

Guests were present from Toronto, London, Lockport, New York, Mount Forest, Alton, Erin, Acton, Guelph, Terra Cotta, Glen Williams, Orangeville.

Previous to her marriage the bride's mother entertained to an open-house and tea, when many guests called.

The bride, prior to her marriage, was entertained by the ladies of Alton Baptist Church at the home of Mrs. Cullen.

The neighbors and friends gave a miscellaneous shower in the education wing at the Erin United Church. The hostesses were Mrs. L. Davidson, Mrs. B. Hebbs, and Mrs. H. Winters.

Mrs. Frank Cunningham and Mrs. Ruth Snell gave a shower at the home of Mrs. Cunningham, Brisbane.

The office staff of Magistrate's Court and Juvenile and Family Court met at the home of Mrs. E. Thompson, Georgetown, and presented the bride with a place setting of silver dishes and a pantry shower.

Mrs. Frank Johnston, aunt of the bride, entertained at her home in Leaside where the bride was given a linen shower.

MARY LEA LOVELL and Milton Ball were married at Alton Baptist church, and are living in Acton.

Free Press Women's Page

Green-Boivin wedding on Hurren lawn

Rose Marie Claudette Boivin became the bride of Ronald Nelson Green on the lawn outside the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hurren, 3rd Line, near Osprey.

Rev. John Lekx of Hillsburgh performed the ceremony. Miss Jean McLeans, played the wedding music.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Gary Warren of Guelph and Gary Warren was the best man.

A reception followed, the Hurren dining room decorated with white gladioli and the traditional wedding cake in the centre of the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside in Ottawa where the groom is attending medical school and the bride is a registered nurse on the staff of the hospital.

MR. AND MRS. TARQUINIO DE FIDELIBUS were married in St. Joseph's church, Acton. The bride is the former Eva De Bartolo. (Roy Studio, Guelph)

Newlywed couple takes honeymoon trip to Italy

Baskets of white gladi decorated St. Joseph's church on August 10 for the ten o'clock marriage of Eva De Bartolo and Tarquinio De Fidelibus.

Rev. V. J. Morgan conducted the double-ring ceremony and Mrs. J. C. Bradshaw played the organ. The junior choir sang "On This Day, Mother Dear O Pray for Me; O Lord I am Not Worthy and Gounod's Ave Maria."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank De Bartolo of 8 George St., Acton. The groom, a barber in Guelph, is the son of Mrs. Fiorina De Fidelibus, Italy.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace in cage style with a row of tiny buttons down the front, ruffled lace accenting the jewel neckline and the tips of the brief sleeves.

A sweeping chapel train of matching lace with a ruffle flowed from the shoulders. A double crown of miniature pearls and hand-cut crystal held a shoulder-length veil of illusion with scalloped edge. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white sweetheart roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Antonia Rocchi, Acton, a friend, and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary De Bartolo, Acton, sister of the bride; Miss Rosanna Ricciuti, Toronto, cousin of the groom; and Miss Maria Greco, Toronto, cousin of the groom. The flower girl was a friend, Miss Rina Zanotti, Toronto.

The attendants wore sunny yellow lace dresses styled identically to the wedding gown with matching headpieces of organza roses with yellow veils. They carried bouquets of yellow and white sweetheart roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Sandy Basciano, Guelph, and the ushers were Joe Mann, Guelph; Renzo Marconi, Guelph and Luigi Mancini, Guelph.

The ring bearer was Master Nicolino Giardino, Guelph.

Dinner was served at the Col. John McCrae Hall, Guelph, with a reception there in the evening. The bride's mother received wearing a blue lace dress with a matching coat and white accessories, with a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's aunt, Mrs. A. Ricciuti, Toronto, received for the groom, whose mother is in Italy. She wore a beige dress with lace jacket and black accessories, with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

A three-week trip to Italy followed for the young couple, and they are now living at 65 Bagot St., Guelph.

Leaving on the honeymoon, the bride wore a blue lace coat with ruffled lace at the neck and sleeves over a sleeveless blue dress, white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Guests attended the marriage from Acton, Toronto, Guelph, Brampton, New York, Orillia and North Bay.

On July 4, a kitchen shower for the bride was held at the home of Mrs. S. Joe, Acton.

On July 6 a miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. S. Rocchi and Antonia Rocchi.

On July 12 a miscellaneous shower was held by Mrs. Pat Bassett, Guelph.

Milton meeting Mission Circle

Members of the Baptist Mission Circle motored to Milton to the home of Janis Harris for their September meeting. Jessie Coles opened the meeting with a devotional thought and prayer.

Business arising from previous meetings was discussed and it was decided to send $25 to the Bolivian Christmas fund. An invitation was read by secretary Eileen Lott for a meeting to be held in Hamilton on October 2 to hear Dr. Devashayam, a native pastor from India.

The October meeting is to be held at the home of Jessie Coles. Marg Landborough read an article written by a councillor of the Billy Graham crusade recently held in Greenville, South Carolina.

All members participated in a prayer period for home and foreign missions, led by Marg Bailey, Edna Gordon and Harriet Helwig. Jessie Coles showed her colored slides taken on a recent trip to England, which was much enjoyed by all present.

Lil Wagner and Elsie Quee assisted the hostess.

MISS CENTENNIAL QUEEN COMPETITION

1967 WINNER Miss Brenda Spear

JUDGED ON APPEARANCE, PERSONALITY AND POISE

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20th AT FALL FAIR VARIETY PROGRAM

Two Runners-Up Will Act as Queen's Attendants

PRIZES FOR ALL CONTESTANTS

SPECIAL PRIZES FOR WINNER AND ATTENDANTS

Deadline for Entries

Wednesday, September 18, at 7 p.m.

REQUIREMENTS

- Single Girls 15 Years of Age and Over
- Wear Street Dress
- Must Live in Acton or Townships of Nassagawaga, Eramosa, Esqueting or Erin

— Entries accepted by members of Fair Committee —

W. Nelles, H. Hinton, R. Kerr, R. Murray, Mrs. J. McCulloch, John Chapman, Margaret Given, Brenda Spear, Linda Linham, Brian Garrill

Cost of education criticized at Institute by Esther Taylor

The Acton W.I. held their September meeting in the new library.

The president, Miss Marjorie Hall, opened the meeting with the Institute ode and collect. The last minutes were read by the secretary Mrs. Fred Anderson. Roll call was "my first school!"

Convener was Mrs. Mary Graham on Citizenship and Education. The speaker, Miss Esther Taylor spoke on the "Old citizens and the new?"

Leave your good deeds behind so that the new ones could carry on the traditions of your community, she said. The generous person gives of his time and skills in the service of his fellow men.

Speaking of education she pointed out the difference in the students of today and how it is making everybody poor to pay for it.

Mrs. Mary Graham thanked Miss Taylor and presented her with a little gift.

The Area Convention is in Guelph on October 28 and 29. Resolutions are for doctors to come out at night, also to ban crime plays on TV for children. The McDonald Institute, first started by a Institute member, is asking help to raise $50,000 for improvement work as their project this year on their 75th anniversary.

Many of our girls have been trained as Home Economists there.

The Plowing Match is on September 7. The 4-H club is holding their training school in Milton September 10 and 11. The Institute display at the Fall Fair will be arranged by Mrs. Denny and Mrs. E. Lambert. They will also have a display at Milton Fair. An auction sale is planned for the October meeting, everybody bringing an article.

For Historical Research Miss

D. Simmons reported about the first girl operator on the telephone in 1879.

Mrs. Earl Lambert gave a reading on Princess Ann, who finishes her education this year. She is ready for marriage as she is 18 years old but does not believe in teenage weddings. She hopes to get a red car for her birthday. Princess Ann, her brother Charles and Prince Philip are going to Mexico for a holiday.

Mrs. Graham, on education urged children to take their example from their parents and their home life.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and Institute grace.

A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. F. Anderson, Mrs. Agnew, Mrs. E. Allen and Mrs. R. Brown.

Mrs. Freeman paid tribute

Mrs. W. Fisher welcomed the ladies of the Rockwood Presbyterian WMS to her home

The devotions were in charge of Miss M. Nickell and Mrs. Fisher. Mrs. L. Johnston led an informative study on Korea and Japan.

Miss Nickell paid tribute to Mrs. J. Freeman for her inspiring leadership as a former WMS president, and for her years of dedicated service as organist of the church. Mrs. W. Swanston presented Mrs. Freeman with a gift and best wishes for happiness in her new home.

Mrs. Buttenham conducted the WA meeting. A poem, "Are you weary?" was read. Mrs. Milne informed the ladies of a most interesting variety night being planned for September 23, in Rockwood Centennial School.

Kayak, canoe races soon

More than 100 canoe and kayak racing enthusiasts will compete in an Ontario championship event this weekend at Elora Gorge Park north of Kitchener.

Organized by the Ontario Canoe Cruisers, the event will take place in the waters on the Grand River between the 70-foot-high walls of the famous Elora Gorge.

The Grand River Conservation Authority, which operates Elora Gorge Park, will co-operate in ensuring an ample flow of water in the river by regulating the gates of the Shand Dam upstream from the park.

L'Arche auxiliary members plan fall fair, draw, dance

The monthly meeting of the L'Arche Auxiliary was held at the home of the president Mrs. J. Kuiken.

Arrangements are well in hand for a booth at the Fall Fair. Rubin Corporation have kindly donated the wood and members' husbands will provide the labor. The booth will be located near the horse show.

Tickets are now being sold for

More "hate" comes to town

Wilf McEachern is another Actonian who last week received a bulky packet of "hate" literature, mailed from Brantford.

Another bundle was received by Norman Turner, R. R. 3, as reported in last week's paper.

a draw on a clock radio and a blanket. The winning tickets will be drawn at the Fall Fair.

Mrs. R. Louttet said "the arrangements for the Autumn Dance on Friday, October 18, at the Acton Legion are progressing."

The Flowers of Hope Campaign was very successful. Mrs. J. Price reported a final total of $902.59 for Acton. Auxiliary members expressed thanks to everyone who contributed in any way. Volunteer help is required at the Hope Work Shop. Anyone interested was asked to phone 853-1175. The Sunshine School Bazaar made a profit of $144 and Mrs. Jeffares thanked everyone who helped make it so successful.

The next meeting will be held at the library on Thursday, October 10, at 8 p.m. and anyone interested will be very welcome.

MOTOROLA Solid State TV is here!

NO TUBES TO BURN OUT

35-in. diagonal picture in Contemporary Lowboy cabinet... with genuine Walnut veneers and select hardwood solids with Light Oil Walnut finish.

SOLID STATE CIRCUITS REPLACE HUNDREDS OF HAND-WIRED CONNECTIONS... ELIMINATE HUNDREDS OF CHANCES FOR HUMAN ERROR.

COLOR PROGRAMS ARE SEEN IN BRILLIANT BLACK AND WHITE ON ALL THESE SETS.

COMPARE and You'll Agree That The Very Best is Motorola

RICHARDSON'S

201 Main St. E. Milton 878-6949

Long Life Transistors Replace Vacuum Tubes for a New Standard of Reliability... INSTANT PICTURE... INSTANT SOUND