

LOCOMOTIVE PUFFS into Rockwood station still in use in the village. This familiar picture years ago. The Grand Trunk Railway station is was used as a postcard.

Pictures from Rockwood's past . . .

IN THE 20's, Rockwood ball team lined up for this photograph. Standing are Herb Dyer, Fred Osburn, Ralph Richardson and Reuben Squires, a now-unknown player, Harry Tate. Seated, Dan Keough, Len Keough, Wilnot Fitzsimmons, Fred Garside and Vincent McAlear. The Keough boys used to have the butcher shop in the village.

Rockwood U.C.W. plans quilting

Unit 1 of Rockwood United Church Women held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Roseburgh. Mrs. F. J. Hosking, leader, conducted the meeting. Mrs. C. H. Harris, assisted by Mrs. Roseburgh and Mrs. S. Treadle, led the devotional study on The Gift of Speech. Mrs. W. Guild gave a very interesting story of the life of A Wheelchair Evangelist in Japan.

Arrangements were made to quilt two patchwork quilts donated by members. Mrs. O. Dryber acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. F. Alton.

Mrs. Roseburgh, hostess and Mrs. C. H. Harris were social conveners for the afternoon.

Gideons conduct Rockwood service

Harvey Groat and T. H. Penfold of Guelph, leaders in Gideon service in Wellington County, conducted a service at Rockwood United Church and described the mounting accomplishments of their organization.

HERE THEY COME! Placing first in this race is Fred Meadows, followed by Fred Osburn, while the crowd cheers them on. Among those in the front row of the crowd, beginning with the woman in the flaring light-colored coat, are Hattie Meadows, Will Ellis, Beatrice Williams, Mrs. McKeown, Mrs. Thomas Hannah, Ruth McCutcheon and Mrs. Wilson.

Funds raised to date for the distribution of Testaments and Bibles total $1,455,000, enabling Gideons to supply 2,440,000 volumes. Eighty-seven countries are now being served by Canada and the United States.

Eramosa council orders farmers' dogs destroyed

A highly incensed Eramosa Township council instructed clerk Lloyd Hindley to notify a local farmer that his dog or dogs had caused $700 to $800 damage to livestock, and must be destroyed within 48 hours. Proof of ownership had been clearly established. Pitiable scenes following dog attack had been witnessed by council members.

Council instructed its building inspector to notify a trailer-occupant that the period of time covered by his several extensions had expired and that he must move his trailer out of the township within 14 days. The clerk was instructed to ask the township lawyer to re-examine trailer regulations for possible loopholes.

Request of a Rockwood business man for permission to extend a street adjoining his property, or remove an offending tree, at his own expense, was sent back to Rockwood board of trustees for re-consideration and recommendation.

Request of several Rockwood residents for action to control water movement over their properties was likewise referred back to the village for recommendation or otherwise. It was felt that this was a purely village matter.

Grants of up to $50 for agricultural societies in Fergus, Erin, and Acton were authorized. Membership in the County Clerk and Treasurers' Association was renewed and payment of $10 fee was authorized.

Council requested the clerk to send for information regarding Eramosa's withdrawal from the Central Wellington High School board so that it would be available for the hearing.

A letter of thanks was ordered sent to the department of highways for installation of hand-railing on the west side of the hill between upper and lower business sections in Rockwood.

Road superintendent Robert Hamilton was instructed to advertise for quotations on a new all-purpose truck, equipped for plowing, sanding, etc.

Six hundred dog tags were ordered for 1969 use. Previous orders of 500 were proving inadequate.

Accounts totalling $17,878.79 were passed for payment.
