Sept. 9: The Hasbeens got off on the right foot in the Beardmore's first night of bowling by winning all games from the Hot Shots who apparently had trouble in finding the range. Finishers had plenty of pins in hand to take totals. Don Harris 716, who incidentally gave the prize high triple honors for the night, Deanna Boulough 691 and Tom Shannon 220 made with the triples and single for Finishers. Steve Topolous with a 603 was lower for the Blue Angels. League standing: Hasbeens 7, Hipples 5, Finishers 5, Lucky Strikes 2, Blue Angels 2, Hot Shots 0.

Results of 4-H competitions

By J. Jenkins

This year the Kiwanis Club of the Kingsway sponsored special project competitions in Halton County as they have in years past. This year there were three separate competitions. The members were urged to take part in at least one.

All 4-H Calf Club members were required to make a rope halter. Members were then urged to enter this halter as part of the competition. Winner of this class was Lois McNabb of R.R. 2, Georgetown, followed by Bob McGee of R.R. 1, Norval, Larry Bennett of R.R. 1, Burlington, and Mary Fuch of R.R. 4, Acton.

There were fewer competitors in the showbox competition, yet the quality of the showboxes was very commendable. Paul Stewart of R.R. 1, Hornby exhibited the best showbox, while Joe Willmott of R.R. 1, Milton, and Dave McKinnon of R.R. 5, Milton were 2nd and 3rd respectively.

In the miscellaneous class Grace Bird of R.R. 2, Georgetown designed a 4-H bulletin board to take top honors. A close second was Lois McNabb of R.R. 2, Georgetown with a 4-H Calf blanket. Ken Austin of R.R. 3, Georgetown was a commendable 3rd with his 4-H gate sign.

issue. The bowling was for the purpose of establishing averages so the executive could line up the teams with comparable strength. Being election night, the following officers were elected. President, Peter Bowman, secretary, Grace Robertson, treasurer, Howie Jenk, league chairman, Steve Blanchard. The league will still accept bowlers, whether they are beginners or not. The only restriction being, the league is for married couples only.

HEADPIN HILITES

Oddities crop up in bowling the same as in other sports and being Friday the thirteenth, Harry Ensign, bowling in the Big Four last Friday eve, rolled four consecutive frames with a 13 pin count. All in all, Harry had nine frames of a 13 count for his night's roll - Acton Mixed League had their election of officers for the 68-69 season and the busy president of last season, Wayne "Spike" Spires was returned to office, as secretary Aldine Dalgle, and treasurer Helen Brouillard. Ed Browne in the role of vice-president is the newcomer to the executive. Bob Agnew who did a very capable job as president of the Acton Major for the past three seasons is now located in Huntsville. "Aggie" both for his bowling proclivities, and his administrative ability, will be sorely missed but he has all our best wishes for his future in his new location. Wayne "Spike" Spires is another bowler of note who has also shifted to the Huntsville area - Jim Bullough, president of the Major League says there are one or two openings in the Major League for bowlers who may desire to bowl on Thursday nights at 6:45 p.m. - overhead that drinking and driving don't mix and as the fellow says, "don't put the cart before the horse" - Earle Middleton is the Central Ontario Bowlers Association, Steve Blanchard, last year's rep having been promoted to a vice-presidency - that winds it up for now my friends, so adios amigos and good-night Daly City.
