Y board night classes here?

The Y board is hoping for more response this week to their offer to operate classes for adults this winter. An advertisement appears again in this week's paper.

Even "minimal" success with a few courses would satisfy the board, who are hoping to fill a gap in the town's recreation program.

Special interest has already been indicated in dressmaking and upholstery classes.

Any other suggestions will also be welcomed. Applications are to be filled in and returned to the Y.M.C.A. Sufficient interest must be registered before the board can go into the details of fees, place and time.

It had been quite a few years since the successful Night School courses were held every winter.

W.I. bus trip to Toronto, Eastern Star in Kitchener

By Alicia F. C. Scott

where everyone enjoyed the view in all directions.

Last on the list, the group travelled to the home of William Lyon Mackenzie on Bond St.

This proved interesting from the print shop to the gas lights, tying post, old stones and furniture of the 1859 era which made such a contrast to the modern homes of today.

The bus arrived back in Georgetown around 6 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. H. Marchington visited Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Lindsay at Lake Dalrymple recently.

Mr. George Burgess spent a few days visiting relatives at Orono.

few days visiting relatives at Orono.

The September meeting of Silverwood Women's Institute was held at the museum at Kelo on September 12. Members gathered around the fireplace on the ground floor for their meeting and, after the meeting, enjoyed a tour of the rest of the museum and newly acquired antiques.

The ladies enjoyed a trip through the Schneider plant.

Mrs. W. R. Norton, Mrs. Don Lindsay, Mrs. George Burt, Mrs. Harry Scott and Mrs. Bruce Lindsay were guests of the Eastern Star on a bus trip to Kitchener on September 10.
