

Girls on "working tour" of world visit district homes on weekend

By Mrs. R. Shortill

The U.C.W. held their general meeting at the home of Mrs. Rick Sales on Tuesday afternoon.

A film on China, the new study book, was shown as the topic. Mrs. Ray Swinglehurst took the devotion.

A bale of used clothing is to be packed early in October, contents to be left in church basement. Plans were also made for a booth at the Ford Sale on October 5.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Cam McEnery. They received word of the death of Mrs. McEnery's brother, Mr. William Evans of Acton.

Miss Emma Cole visited with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Madill on Sunday. Murray Jamieson began his course at Waterloo University on Monday September 16.

Miss Donna Shortill, who is attending Ontario College of Education was home for the weekend. Reports from the O.C.E. and the Lakeshore Teachers' College are that the enrolment is several hundreds in excess of what was expected. This evidence should furnish us with the expectation of many qualified teachers for next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Snow and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Snow attended the wedding in Erin United Church of their nephew Mr. John Gates, who was married to Miss Nancy Fick on Saturday.

Mrs. Olive Hills of Toronto and Miss Muriel Hills visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hills last weekend.

We were interested to note in a recent Acton Free Press of the graduation of Miss Sandra Binnie at Guelph Hospital. Congratulations from Ballinafad, Sandra!

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen of Georgetown and their family moved into the Snider apartment this week. They are recently from Denmark.

Mr. Hillier of Port Credit took the service on Sunday morning. His talk was on Missionary and Maintenance. We noticed in the daily paper news of the death of Mr. Harold Smart of Mississauga and also that of Mr. Alfred Himes. Both were former Ballinafad people.

Mrs. Leo Jamieson and Mrs. Buchanan, who will be leaders again for the 4-H Club, attended the training school in Milton last Tuesday. The project this time will deal with "The Third Meal". Mrs. Lloyd Marshall was hostess for the Scout Mothers' meeting. Plans for the fall term were made.

A number from here attended the interesting Acton Fair programs on Friday evening, also the Fair on Saturday.

Mr. George Harris returned from the Dog Show at Owen Sound last week with two trophies his dogs had won.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shortill are now making their home in Ottawa where Ross is stationed.

Miss Coral Hagan and friend from Coosamundra, New South Wales, Australia have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Handcock over the weekend. These young ladies have been on a "working tour" around the world. Now with six weeks to go, they are leaving by way of Europe to return home. They have enjoyed their stay in Canada, and their work among the Canadian people very much.

LIMEHOUSE

20 enrolled in nursery school W.A. booth sells out at fair

By Mrs. A. Benton

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. John Noble is progressing favorably following a bout of bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. Walter Linham presented her case clearly when she appeared on T.V. station 13 on Thursday morning on behalf of Acton Fair Board, of which she is president of the Acton Fair Board ladies.

We regret that Mr. Sidney Kirkpatrick and Mr. John Roughley were both taken to hospital in Georgetown last weekend. We hope for better health for both soon.

Mrs. Regent has 20 little folks enrolled in the Happy Day Nursery School, with a accommodation for ten more. A far cry from our childhood when no one was accepted until six years of age!

The Limehouse Presbyterian Church ladies had a sellout at their food booth at Acton Fall Fair. They are now preparing for their next big event with anniversary and a turkey supper the coming weekend.

ALMOST LIKE SOME Abbey Tower in old England, this remnant of the Harris woolen mills stands at the bottom of the river valley now enclosed in the Rockwood Conservation Park. The park is operated by the Grand River Conservation Authority, which has preserved the natural beauty of the area.

EBENEZER

Church's 146th anniversary wounded Vietnam vet in news

By Mrs. R. McLean

Dr. Hallman of Toronto is to be guest speaker at Ebenezer United Church 146th anniversary services September 29.

A number of ladies had the privilege of hearing Mrs. Hallman in Fergus last spring. She and her husband were leaders in the Evangelical United Brethren Church, which merged with the United Church of Canada. Dr. Hallman will have to go a long way to match his wife as a speaker.

Rev. R. Waugh, who takes the evening service at 7.30, is the well-known pastor of Chalmers, Guelph.

Next Sunday only, there will be no Sunday-School.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. George Robertson and Mrs. Dave Boler, today, to Mrs. Tommy Amos and Horace Blyth tomorrow and to Mrs. Keith Anderson on Saturday.

Joy Hayward was guest of honor at a shower. While Joy's name suits her perfectly, there was a feeling of sadness, rather than "Joy", as we think how much we will miss her. Ebenezer's loss is Orangeville's gain. Lucky Bill Trimble.

Sandra Early sang "Danny Boy", followed by Laurie, with "God's Little Candle." Mr. Malcolm Moffat, (a proud grandpa!) gave a humorous reading.

Dianne Sanderson, Kathy Norrish, (Mrs. Doug Fettes) and Mrs. Lloyd Luost, assisted in opening the gifts. The Jos family were also very helpful.

At the time of writing, (Friday evening) we are very sorry to report that Sheldon Trousdale is in Guelph General Hospital, with an infected hand. His host of friends trust that his stay there will be brief.

News that is old, but new to me, was that Butch Sanderson, who has been to Vietnam, is back again. He has been home since June, still limping from the wound he received in his foot.
