Bonnie MacDougall, Terry Hamilton wed in autumn ceremony at Eden Mills church

On a fine, sunny autumn day, Bonnie Edythe MacDougall and Terry John Hamilton exchanged rings in a wedding ceremony in Eden Mills Presbyterian church. Rev. D. R. Sinclair performed the marriage at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, October 12. Bouquets of bronze and yellow mums and melon candles decorated the church, and the white pew bows held heads of barley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet MacDougall of Eden Mills, and is a secretary at Canadian General Electric, Guelph. The groom, office and credit manager of Firestone stores in Guelph, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross (Buck) Hamilton, R. R. 1, Campbellville.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of crystal satin with fitted Empire bodice, a line skirt and a train flowing from the shoulders. Swiss Gulpure lace trimmed the stand-away collar and tips of the elbow-length sleeves.

Her headdress, a satin and organza rose, encircled with sprays of lily-of-the-valley, held her shoulder length veil of illusion with scalloped edge.

She carried a cascade of red roses, sprigs of lily-of-the-valley and ivy.

She was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Peter Lawson, Kingston, cousin of the bride, and the two bridesmaids were Mrs. Yvon LaChance, Acton, cousin of the bride, and Miss Carol Brown, Guelph, a friend.

Young flower girl was Miss Tracy Currie, Acton, a niece of the groom.

All four attendants were dressed alike in floor-length A line gowns of emerald green peau de grenadine with rounded neckline and bell sleeves.

Their bouquets were bronze mums with yellow sweetheart roses, accented with sprays of wheat. The flower girl carried the same blooms in a small basket.

Rosettes of the dress material encircled with chiffon formed the headdresses.

Their silver crosses and the flower girl's gold ring were the gifts of the bride.

Master Billy Hamilton, Guelph, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer carrying a satin and lace heart-shaped pillow with the initials of the bride and groom.

Lowell Watson, Belleville, was groomsman. Ushers were Yvon LaChance, Acton, and Peter Lawson, Kingston.

Mrs. Donald Blacklock was organist. Soloist Mrs. James Mathieson sang "The Lord's

Prayer and Through the Years.

There was a tour of the village after the ceremony when the couple were given a ride in an open old model Chev by owner Bill Lowrie and Harvey Link. A heart of paper flowers and streamers decorated the old car for the special trip.

The afternoon reception and dinner were held in the church Sunday school room, and in the evening there was a reception in the Co-op Hall, Guelph.

Guests were present from Kingston, Belleville, Toronto, London, Dundas, Fergus, Guelph, Milton, Georgetown, Acton and Eden Mills.

The bride's mother wore a coat and dress ensemble of yellow matelasse, feathered hat in shades of yellow and brown, brown accessories with a corsage of Zorrina roses and yellow carnations.

The groom's mother wore powder blue chiffon over lace, blue feathered hat, navy accessories and red sweetheart roses.

A guest of honor was the bride's grandmother who was dressed in aqua lace over taffeta, silver and white feather hat, black accessories with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

After the reception the couple went to visit the groom's grandfather at the Chronic Wing of St. Joseph's Hospital, and the Rev. Fred Williamson, a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

Their honeymoon trip was to the Laurentians and Lake Placid, New York, for two weeks. The bride wore a fur-trimmed white wool suit, feather hat of brown and gold, brown alligator accessories and a cream cymbidium orchid.

The happy couple are living at 57 Lansdale Dr., Guelph.
