Careless driving charge dismissed

Conviction of H. H. Hinton on charge of careless driving was quashed by Judge James D. Sutherland in Wellington County court Friday afternoon. Mr. Hinton appealed his conviction and fine of $25 on Aug. 27 in connection with a rear-end collision on Highway 7, Aug. 7 this year.

The other car had been required to stop when a municipal machine blocked the township concession four, where it was working. While the car was waiting to turn right the collision occurred on one stem of a long Starn. Abraham Acker, OC, claimed his client was almost stopped when the collision occurred so

Baled hay set ablaze on Hallowe'en night

By Mrs. D. G. Robertson

Mr. and Mrs. Cyler Wheeler, Speedside; Mr. and Mrs. W. Wheeler, Traverse City, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. W. Gray, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. George Cruickshank, Hillburgh, visited with Mrs. M. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray McKittrick, Mrs. G. Bilton and Miss Nancy Grundy attended the funeral of the former's cousin Mrs. Ross Irvine at Grand Valley. Mr. and Mrs. McKittrick also attended the funeral of another cousin James Bryan at Alliston.

Hallowe'en passed off rather quietly in the village, the usual little folks made their rounds for treats, but behaved very well. Towards mid-night a stack of baled hay, in a field on the highway below Mr. H. R. Howard's home, was set ablaze, thus depriving four ponies of their winter feed.

Mr. K. Klooster returned to his home following a six weeks stay in hospital, and is now convalescing.

Mr. George Cooke has had a fine two car garage erected behind his cottage on the Highway.

The fourth meeting of the 4-H Club girls was held at the home of Mrs. D. Milton with 10 members and two leaders present.

Brenda Bruce opened the meeting with the 4-H Pledge. Roll call - "Places the Feather Stitch" could be used," was answered by all.

Donna Milton read the minutes of the previous meeting. The name selected for the club was "Ospringe Embroiderettes".

Uses of the feather-stitch were discussed by Mrs. R. Ellis. Pictures of pillows and other articles which could be used as a free choice article were shown.

Mrs. D. Milton demonstrated the Lazy Daisy stitch and the chain stitch.

The balance of the meeting was spent practising the new stitches.

Mrs. Barbara Fawcett home economist, was a guest, when members of the local 4-H Club entertained the Coningsby and Greenock clubs, at the school.

Brenda Bruce welcomed all and introduced Mrs. Fawcett who showed slides and also some wall-hangings.

Donna Milton expressed thanks to the guest speaker; and Mrs. L. Laing on behalf of the guests thanked the local club and leaders for the informative and interesting evening.

Let's Play Bridge

by bill coats

I have often wondered if there is such a thing as a "Goddess of Bridge". When two bridge players make the most horrible sequence of bids, is there someone who makes the cards lie just right so the contract will make?

Here is a hand bid and played by two of our better players at the Acton Bridge Club. South dealt and North South were vulnerable.

NORTH S-Vol 8 S-109875 D-034 C-AKJ85 WEST S-K 63 H-KJ D-532 C-Q10973 EAST S-1098 H-Q643 D-1097 C-642 SOUTH S-AQJ7542 H-92 D-AK86 C-Void

The bidding: SOUTH WEST NORTH EAST 1S Pass 2H Pass 3S Pass 4C Pass 4D Pass 4NT Pass 5H Pass 6D Pass 6S Pass 7D AU Pass

Opening lead - 7 of clubs; South's hand is not strong enough to open a demand bid as used by most players in North America. Any one using intermediate two bids on opening two clubs forcing to three of a major, could use such a demand bid on this hand. It's low in high cards but high in playing strength.

The rest of the bidding is perhaps a natural consequence of the cards held, but South should respect North's decision to play at six diamonds. If you don't trust your partner you are in trouble.

But what "Goddess of Bridge" was sitting on South's shoulders. Before winning the club lead declarer took stock. If the club finesse won, declarer could take three clubs, one heart, one spade and seven diamonds on a cross ruff. But that's only twelve tricks, not enough for the grand slam. If spades were divided four-two, one ruff would establish the suit if the king were with the doubleton.

However declarer decided to try for a ruffing finesse. This is a reverse of the usual finesse. For a ruffing finesse, declarer wants the king over the queen.

The opening lead was won in dummy and a heart discarded from declarer's hand. The trump queen was taken and a low trump led to declarer's king. Now the spade queen was led. West ducked smoothly but declarer had made up his mind. He pitched a club. Now the spade ace was cashed and low spade ruffed with dummy's last
