TIM HAINES, the Glen Williams player who starred with Acton Tanners for two seasons, is combining business with pleasure while touring Europe with his bride of six months, the former Shirley Leaver, of Victoria, B.C.

Tim is coaching one of the top hockey clubs in Fribourg, Switzerland as well as training school boys in the game. In spite of a language barrier, Tim has been able to lift the team from an early season slump.

When the hockey season ends, the newlyweds will be joined by Tim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Haines of Glen Williams. and the foursome will travel to Spain for a holiday. Tim Haines is a nephew of Mrs. Joe Hurst of Arthur St., Acton.

Probably Tanner mentor Harold Townsley, acutely aware of former Tanners now performing for Georgetown Raiders, is just as glad Tim is playing his hockey in Switzerland. His speed on the blades would make the Raiders more deadly.

Some of the players have been taken up by the Juveniles and manager Bob hiarshall thinks they will manage to get them all in at least one game this season. The Juves meet Burlington here Friday night in a game which will have a skating exhibition by skaters from the Acton Figure Skating Club between periods.

DON'T KNOW why the O.H.A. would send Johnny Heipel to referee Friday's intermediate hockey game here last Friday unless there's someone at headquarters sending out officials unaware of past history.

Heipel, of course, was the league-leading scorer for the Hespeler club for some seasons. Naturally he would be suspect as being partial to the Mic Macs.

According to spectators, their suspicions were confirmed to the point where a look at the ref was good for a trip to the penalty box for the Tanners. Later the tension built up to the point where the gendarmes were alerted to rescue the officials from some irate Acton fans who took exception to some of his

Then, of course, there was the incident where Heipel and Ron Aseltine, the Tanner blue liner, discussed some topic of current interest with their fists. Now hitting a referee is usually good for at least an automatic year's suspension but in this case it seems there were extenuating circumstances. According to nearby witnesses Heipel hit Asseltine first. Indeed, it would be difficult to hold your temper if the referee wound up and socked you. But unless the O.H.A. takes this into consideration there's not much likelihood of the Tanners holding onto Asseltine this season. see. ... : 2 %

IT'S BEEN a hard season for Harold Townsley and the Tanners to round into shape. Injuries and suspensions, shift work and failure of players to show up for work-outs or games have reduced their effectiveness.

There's also been the schedule, which certainly wasn't conducive to the team while they were just beginning to shape up. Happily the worst of jamming into one another will be over by next week.

Then the schedule will turn into one more suited to players.
