

Shut-in gifts, B.M.C. projects

Members of the Baptist Mission Circle met Monday evening at the home of Marj Landsborough for their January meeting. All present enjoyed a bountiful pot luck supper prior to the meeting and although the attendance was below average because of stormy weather everyone had a delightful evening.

Reports were given of the gifts given to the shut-ins at Christmas and of the food parcels to be sent to Africa in the near future. Bandages and baby clothes are to be prepared by members for White Cross work, to be finished by March. Frances Feltham and Marg Billie had charge of the program and gave a challenge for all as we enter the new year. The meeting closed with a very inspiring candlelight service led by Frances Feltham.

BUSINESS WAS good in Acton shops over the holidays.

BROKEN YOUR New Year's resolutions yet?

SNOWMOBILES ARE roaring all through the countryside these weekends. We've heard of several injuries since Christmas, too.

PUBLIC SCHOOL teachers held a special meeting in the Robert Little school on the first day back to school, to discuss the Hall-Dennis report. Pupils got out early.

NEXT HOLIDAY for school pupils is the new-type winter holiday, from March 15 to 23.

THE PUBLISHING schedule is back to the normal Wednesday this week. For the past two weeks, holidays pushed the publication date ahead to Monday, with confusion for all concerned.

ALL THE SNOW brings miseries or joys, depending on your age.
