Christmas tree burning highlights community night

By Mrs. R. Wright

Saturday evening in the Community Park, 200 gathered to see the burning of Christmas trees plus skating, skiing, and sleigh riding. About 10 owners of ski-doos came and entertained the children with rides. Many adults took their first ride on them as well.

Two draws were made during the evening, the first going to Trevor Clifford and the second to Joan Chamberlain. Free hot chocolate and sandwiches were served from the booth by the ladies. The first monthly meeting of the year of Eden Mills and wir.ter months with the next. District Community Club was held Monday evening in the hall with a good attendance. Plans
