BALLINAFAD

Hockey, meetings, in report

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Mrs. Eddie Smith is confined to bed with an injured back. A large number of school children are suffering from colds and nagging coughs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shortill visited the Richard Shortills on Sunday.

Snow and ice accumulated on roofs of houses has been causing damage and in many cases has to be chopped off.

Miss Anna Shortill is practicing teaching in Georgetown this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McNery on Sunday.

Ballinafad boys played hockey in Erin again on Sunday.

At service Sunday morning Rev. Johnson's discourse was entitled "Why Am I Here"—"Where Am I Going"—how important it is for us to have a purpose in life and to live steadily, toward a goal.

An S.O.S. call went out for help in the Sunday School if it is to carry on its work.

The annual meeting is taking place Monday evening.

The Hall Board had their meeting on Thursday evening.

SILVERWOOD

Institute members tour post office

By Mrs. H. Scott
Silverwood Women's Institute held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. K. C. Lindsay on Thursday, January 11. The members met at the Georgetown post office, where Mr. James Collier, assistant post master showed the ladies the inner workings that keep the mails running smoothly and regularly.

The business part of the meeting was held at Mrs. Lindsay's. An auction sale among the members brought in needed cash.

The second school bus shelter has been placed at the crest of Silvercreek hill.

Silverwood 4-H girls were among the groups at achievement day at Ballinafad on January 11.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Van Lere who is a patient in hospital in Toronto at present.

General occurrences during the O.P.P. reporting week of January 12 to January 18 were about normal. One minor theft, one break, enter and theft from a room in a hotel were the more serious. A liquor seizure, malicious damage, causing a disturbance and three other minor occurrences completed the week.

Three minor non-injury traffic accidents were investigated. Approximately $400 in damages were incurred. The erring drivers have been charged.

Four drivers were issued traffic tickets for violations under the Highway Traffic Act, and another six were issued warnings.

Provincial court in Milton on Monday, January 13, saw seven persons convicted and pay fines and costs totalling $117.

The town cruiser was driven 660 miles, while the six man detachment worked a total of 200 duty hours.

On reviewing occurrences for the year 1968, it is quite obvious to the O.P.P. that "youth" employed a great deal of the man hours worked by this detachment during the year.

School lectures by the safety officers made up a small part of the dealings with children. Almost every week there were minor thefts, property damage, lost or stolen bicycles and a host of other complaints which were attributed to children.

Sometimes a child will be the instigator of lawlessness without knowing he is doing so. For instance: the use of firearms or an air rifle. If the child is not taught the correct use of it, how
