STRIKES At Youth Bowling Council

by Jackie Palmer

Feb. 1: This time of year has arrived again, the time of our old, unfriendly, unwelcome guest, "The Flu". Its newest victim was one of our favorite coaches, "Uncle Timmie". His Bantam team quickly discovered his absence was unfortunate and wishes him a speedy recovery. Congratulations to the final qualifiers of our "Four Steps to Stardom". The qualifiers for our Bantam boys team are Paul Goodale, Brad Martin, Bert Post, Ronnie Moore and Bill Gentles. They will be heading to Port Credit on Feb. 15 for the Second Step to Stardom. Good luck boys. The Bantam girls team who will represent Acton in the Park Royal Lanes in Clarkson Feb. 16 are the following qualifiers: Valerie Bateman, Susan Thomson, Carol Grant, Kathleen Dills and Cindy Norrie. Good luck, girls! The Senior Boys' team will be composed of these qualifiers: Ken Marshall, Larry Knight, Larry DeForest, Larry Drysdale and Rod McEachern. These boys will be competing at Oakton Bowl in Oakville Feb. 23. Good luck boys! Good luck to all of our qualifiers and come home champs. The best day of the year is your birthday, to all the younger generations (the Happy Birthday greetings are sent to Ricky Van Council and Kevin Broadst, both Bantams, and they celebrate this joyful time on the same day, Feb. 3. Also happy birthdays to two Bantam girls, Karen Norton and Carol Grant who have the same birthdate, Feb. 6. The most consistent bowler of the week was Bantam bowler Ricky Van Council with two games of 117. Congratulations!
