Essex shunt Bants to tourney sidelines

Acton Firefighter Bantams gave it a valiant effort against a strong Essex team and came very close to reaching the finals of the "D" division at last week's International Bantam Tournament in Georgetown.

The "bants", after eliminating Aylmer in the first round, knocked off Amherstberg 7-4, on Thursday, to advance to the semi-finals, where they lost to last year's O.M.H.A. champions 4-2, and 6-4. Essex went on to defeat Leveck for the "D" series title.

In Thursday's action, Acton won the first game of the two games total goals series, 5-2, then were held to a 2-2 tie in the second game.

Dale Fisher, Bren Irwin, Ron Loutett, Roland McCulloch and Pete Morrison scored in the morning game, while Morrison and Gary Turkoz bulged the twine in the nightcap. Against Essex, the Acton lads fell behind in both games and although they never gave up, they weren't able to overtake their high-flying opponents.

Dale Fisher had a fine day, scoring twice in the morning game, and hitting a hat trick in the afternoon. Pete Morrison and Gary Turkoz notched the other Acton markers.

Broken leg

A player from Brampton suffered a broken leg in a pick-up hockey game at Acton arena Sunday morning between 8 and 9 a.m.

Arena manager Harold Townsley reported the injured man was taken to Guelph hospital by ambulance.

Brigade on duty at hockey tournament

Acton's St. John Ambulance Brigade played an active part in the international bantam hockey tournament at Georgetown last week, and their presence added to the success of the event.

There were many injuries, but considering that hundreds of boys were involved in over 90 games, there weren't more than would be expected.

In fact, all day Saturday only one small bandaid was applied to one small cut.

One Acton player received stitches for a cut eye.

Another player had a broken wrist, and a suspected broken finger was treated for a spectator who had caught it in a door. There were minor cuts to both players and spectators. Average number of injuries was about four or five a day, over the length of the tourney.

Acton brigade members had a roster of duty hours for the event.

Scouts win exhibition

The Pee Wee Stars and Ross Budgell's Scouts tangled in an exhibition game at the community centre this week. The Scouts emerged 11-5 victors.

The Scout team was made up of Ricky Bonnetto, Glen McKenzie, Ken Jordan, John Hansen, Barry Payne, Danny McGilloway, Terry Slaven, Peter Hargrave, Don Hale, Jamie Davidson and Joey Schuts.

Discount out in front in first league final

Lakeview Discount won the first game of the Industrial League finals on Sunday night with a decisive 8-4 victory over Nielsen's.

Lakeview monopolized scoring in the first period with Masales popping one in from Withers, Arbic from Holmes, and Holmes from Arbic.

Stull scored for Nielsen's first point at the 19 second mark of the second period with assists from Van Eyken and Wheeler. Masales chalked up a fourth goal for Lakeview from Townsley, and Arbic a fifth unassisted.

Nielsen's pulled themselves together in the third in an effort to come from behind. Sinclair

Minor soccer men meet again Sunday

First meeting of the Acton Minor Soccer Association Sunday attracted only a few supporters but the Association expects a better turnout for the next meeting this Sunday.

Although the season is early, soccer enthusiasts point out it won't be long until the ground is in good enough shape to kick a ball around. Unlike baseball and some other sports there isn't much of a wait for weather.

Sunday's meeting, due to start at 2:30, will also be used to form an executive. There are plenty of boys who want to play soccer but the soccer men have a perennial complaint—lack of adults to help with the program. So everyone interested is welcome.

Further information can be obtained by phoning Gil Malcolm at 853-0593.

Ages of players for the respective teams: Jr. A, 21; Jr. B, 18; Bantams, 15; Pee Wees 13; Mosquitos 11; Atoms 9.

Charles blast Dominions 12-0

Charles Hotel is still unbeaten at home in the shuffleboard league.

The Milton hotelers preserved their unbeaten streak on their own stamping grounds by blasting Acton's Dominion Hotel 12-0 last Thursday night.

Fresh from their tourney win at Erindale, the Dominion team is looking forward to a tourney at the Masonic Hall in Milton this Saturday, sponsored by the league.
