Variety program, play in school on Friday

By Mrs. D. G. Robertson

Grades 7 and 8 of the local school, accompanied by the principal Bruce Macpherson and teachers travelled to Hamilton on Thursday where they toured Dundurn Castle and the Water filtration plant.
Mr. and Mrs. Sherlock Aitken of New Hamburg spent the weekend with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken.
Mrs. G. Lang spent a couple of days last week at the Hairdressers convention and Style Show in Toronto.
Mrs. Florence Grundy visited last week in Rockwood with her daughter and son-in-law Gordon and Mrs. Bilton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Carter, Stratford, visited on Saturday with the former's sister and brother-in-law D. G. and Mrs. Robertson.
A fair crowd attended the variety program and play sponsored by the Munos Women's Institute held Friday evening at the school.
Roy Wheeler was master of ceremonies.
An arm-chair visit to the Canadian West, was provided by Haines Root with excellent pictures taken on a recent holiday.
Musical numbers, and readings by Mrs. Ward Bruce, added to the evening.
A play "Kiss me quick, I'm doubled parked" by the Eramosa young people was well performed and brought forth lots of humour.
Lucky winner of an oil painting was Mrs. Swift of R. R. 4, Fergus.
Articles of home-made baking were soon disposed of from well-laden tables.
