

Doreen Fisher, Ross McLean married in candlelight service on April 5

In a candlelight ceremony in Boston Presbyterian church Marjorie Doreen Fisher became the bride of Kenneth Lloyd Ross McLean. Rev. Stanley Smith officiated at the seven o'clock double ring ceremony and the church was decorated with white snapdragons, white and mauve mums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fisher, R.R. 3, Georgetown, and the groom, a barber in Acton, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean, R.R. 2, Acton.

The bride's gown of organza over tulle, was accented with beaded lace. A matching coat bordered with lace fell into a train. A single rhinestone-studded rose held her shoulder-length veil. Her silver heart-shaped pendant and earrings were the gift of the groom. She carried a mauve orchid with hyacinths.

The four bridal attendants, all wearing mauve, were her sister Mrs. Edna Hyatt, Norval, as matron of honor; cousin Miss Betty Bloor, Brampton, and cousin Miss Lois Hunter, Burlington, as bridesmaids, and sister Miss Vera Fisher, Georgetown, as junior bridesmaid.

They wore identical floor length gowns of mauve chiffon over taffeta with empire waists, embroidered trim and long sheer sleeves. Their headpieces were mauve roses and they carried mauve tinted mums with purple ribbon.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Stanley McEnery, Limehouse, cousin of the groom, and the ushers were Gary Brown, Georgetown, a cousin; Stan Hyatt, Norval, brother-in-law of the bride; and Ron McLean, Acton, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Flora Slocki played the organ. Mrs. Audrey Peddie and Miss Sharon Hume sang The Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love.

The reception was held in the church parlor when guests were welcomed from London, Niagara Falls, Markdale, Tara, Dayton, Elm, Burlington, Aslmer, Guelph, Georgetown, Toronto, Brampton, Erindale, Limehouse, Milton and Acton.

The bride's mother wore a mauve coat dress ensemble of silk shantung with beaded trim, mauve accessories and yellow sweetheart ties.

The groom's mother assisted wearing a blue coat dress ensemble of silk shantung with bead and bead trim, flowered hat, matching shoes and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

The bride's table carried out the color scheme with mauve and white candles and flowers at either side of the three-tiered wedding cake, made by the bride's mother.

Special guests were the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Ottawa, the bride wearing a navy and white crepe coat dress ensemble with matching accessories and a mauve orchid. They are living in their new home at R.R. 2, Acton.

There were many special events arranged before the wedding.

Adgrove community held a miscellaneous shower.

Scott Block community presented them with walnut end tables. Ballinacady community had a dance and presented the couple with a room divider, bridge set and purse of money.

Miscellaneous showers were held by Mrs. Lloyd McEnery, Mrs. Frank Whitmer, Mrs. Harry Shortill and Miss Donna Shortill.

Trip to Barbados follows Johnson-Schubert wedding

A honeymoon trip to the Barbados followed the marriage of Karin Marianne Schubert and Ian Spencer Johnson on February 22. The Rev. H. Dawson officiated at the double ring ceremony and St. Alban's church was decorated with white thorns.

Mrs. Frank Oakes played the organ. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schubert of 30 Churchill Road, Acton. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Johnson, R.R. 3, Acton, is a real estate salesman in association with his father.

The bride wore a floor-length silk corded gown, its tailored sleeves accented with buttons. A petalled headpiece held her floor length veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Smorgasbord draws 150

About 150 enjoyed the Daughters of Knox smorgasbord in the Presbyterian church Friday evening. The tickets were all pre-sold to assure the right number for the tables set up in the church basement.

The delicious array of foods offered ranged from roast beef to cabbage rolls, with hot vegetables and salads, fruit cup, cheese and crackers and cookies.

Wearing full-length velvet gowns, the bride's five attendants were Miss Ann Watt, Georgetown, as maid of honor, Miss Jane Johnson and Miss Glynis Johnson, Acton, as bridesmaids. Miss Gabrielle Pyralis, Oakville, the Junior bridesmaid, and Angela Schmidt, Acton, the flower girl.

The maid of honor and flower girl wore royal purple gowns with trains, while the other bridesmaids wore royal blue velvet. The gowns featured necklines bordered with dyes of the same material and color and they had matching headpieces.

They wore long white gloves and carried white mums with yellow carnations.

Steven Schubert, the bride's brother, was the ring bearer, and like all the other men in the wedding party he wore top hat and tails. He carried a white satin heart-shaped pillow.

Mr. Schubert gave his daughter in marriage.

The groomsmen, as Bob Hsley, Guelph, the ushers were Jerry Ockenden, Acton, Stuart Johnson, Acton, the groom's brother, and Andy Bowman, Acton.

Guests were present from Acton, Georgetown, Brampton, Milton, Oakville, Toronto and Guelph.

The reception and dance was
