

Hilts family leaves centennial farm presentation in hall for newlyweds

By Mrs. R. Shortill
The Women's Institute meeting was at the home of Mrs. Tom Given on Wednesday. The roll call answered by information on Northern Canada Institutes, gave insight into various phases of W. I. work there.

Mrs. Robert McEney gave the motto "W.I. is like a bank put nothing in, you get nothing out."

Several reports were given, sale of bulbs and plants, proceeds for welfare, and finally a social time brought the meeting to a close. A number of the ladies were guests of Silverwood Institute on Thursday night when an interesting speaker gave an address.

A presentation was held in the Community Centre on Friday night for Mr. and Mrs. Ross McLean.

Master Johnnie Thompson spent Saturday with his cousin, Mark Shortill.

Several from here attended the wedding on Saturday of Brian Swindlehurst and Miss Wagener in Hillsburg Presbyterian church and also the evening wedding party in the Community Centre, Hillsburg.

At one of our centennial farms, Wednesday evening a sale of antiques will be held namely the Hilts farm. This farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hilts, Muel and Helena, and Miss Beatrice Hilts was taken from the bush around 1820 and has been peopled by direct descendants ever since. This wonderful Hilts family has been a tradition of Ballinafad and it is with regret it has been necessary for them to sell.

However a bright feature is the fact that Ballinafad people in the persons of Willard and Vera Sanderson, James and Calvin will be the new owners.

Mrs. Sanderson, the former Vera Langstreet, will be going back to the 8th line where she was born and grew up on the 3rd lot Erin where now reside Mr. and Mrs. Selesoraitiv.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sinder, Mr.

and Mrs. McPherson visited on Sunday with parents Mr. and Mrs. Snider. Also Mr. Howard Snider spent the weekend at home.

Mr. Syd. Spear is making extensive repairs to his home on the hill back of the church.

We Douge Keyes, who resides with his aunt Mrs. Elsie Swindlehurst had surgery performed on his ankles a week ago and is now able to be back home with casts to repair his trouble.

Mrs. Winnie Smith was able to return home from Georgetown, hospital last week.

Mr. Matt Shortill has sold his 20 acre property to Mr. Frederick Air of Toronto. Church services went back to 9.45 on Sunday and many of us were caught napping. It was family Sunday and Willa, Fred and Anne Shortill contributed a lovely trio.

We understand Miss Anne Shortill has accepted a teaching position with the North Halton School Board for the coming year.

CHURCHILL

Minister of Church of Deaf "translates" Churchill service

By Mrs. F. McArthur
A good number of friends joined with us and enjoyed the special church service on Sunday evening in Churchill Community Church to meet and hear Rev. Robert Rumball's message. His inspiring sermon was based on the 4th Chapter of John and was delivered in two languages at the same time so all present could receive the messages.

He was a busy man translating our minister, Mr. Hyde's part of the service in sign language also the words of the anthem our Junior choir sang.

A number from his church of the Deaf in Toronto in their way rendered a message of song and this was repeated so we all could understand and enjoy it.

At the close of the service everyone was invited to go to the basement where they could meet and chat with Mr. Rumball and hear of his work with the deaf people. Many questions were asked and he happily answered explaining his work and plans for the future especially with the young.

The ladies served tea and coffee and freshie for the children with a hearty pot luck lunch at the close.

Dr. F. W. MacDonald, Sylvia and Jock of Mississauga spent Saturday with their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blaine.

Mrs. Joe Robinson nee Helen McMurphy of Thornhill visited with her friends Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davidson last Thursday.

We are pleased to report Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davidson's new home on Churchill Road is nearing completion and they hope to move in the latter part of May.
