ROCKWOOD TRAIL RIDERS took advantage of Monday's ideal Spring weather by taking a 10 mile jaunt through Eramosa township roads. Here some of the riders pass through a leafy bower on the 5th and 6th line after leaving the Dales farm. Earlier plans to hold contests near Everton were cancelled due to the wet ground. Almost 40 riders took part in the exercise. (Staff Photo)

South section ends

To continue N. Halton festival

The North Halton Music Festival is continuing although the South Halton Festival will be discontinued. J. W. Singleton, director of education told members of the Halton County Board

Mr. Singleton, replying to questions from trustees pointed out the festival associations were independent of the Board and officials had read of plans to discontinue the South Halton Festival in the press.

Youth orchestra presents concert

The Guelph Academy of String Art Orchestra, (Guelph's Youth Orchestra) will hold their Spring Concert at 8 o'clock on Saturday, May 24.

Two guests from Toronto University will appear as soloists, Norman Abbott, cellist, and Rosemarie Klimacko, violinist. Orchestra works will include a Bach Chorale, Prelude and Fugue and a Piano Concerto with Paul Murgave as pianist, also the Symphony Mosaic in D for string orchestra by Pleyel-Lotter.

Orchestra members Joanne Young, violin and Carl Harris, viola will also play solos.

He noted the officials of the organization had apparently been considering the move for some time and paid for an advertisement to announce the suspension of the program. The Board was involved in each festival with financial assistance and bus transportation. Mr. Singleton reported the North Halton Festival would be continuing, he understood, and the Board would be expected to continue its relationship.
