OBITUARY

Mrs. Edith Smith

Mrs. Edith Smith, a former Acton district resident, passed away in St. Catharines General Hospital after a prolonged stay. Her first husband, the late William James, was killed in an industrial accident in Acton in 1923; her second husband was the late Sydney Smith.

Mrs. Smith, aged 84, was the loving mother of five children: Mrs. Joseph Brochu (Marion) of Georgetown; Mrs. Kenneth Harris (Ethel) of Georgetown; Mrs. Ernest Keep (Hazel) and Howard James, both of St. Catharines and Lloyd James of Markham. She is also survived by eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Smith was born in Pennsylvania. She lived many years in Acton district and had been in St. Catharines the last 11 years.

Funeral service was held at the Romley-Shoemaker funeral home, Acton, on Friday, June 13 at 2 p.m. Pallbearers were Jim Harris, Larry James, Jack Gudgeron, Rae Cookwell, and Howard Keep, grandsons and Ernest Keep, son-in-law.

Interment was in Fairview cemetery, Acton.
