Harry Isham director of retarded workshop

Harry Isham of R. R. 6, Milton, director of the A.R.C. Industries workshop for adult retardates at Hornby, died suddenly in St. Michael's College Hospital, Toronto, on June 14. Mr. Isham has been active in the local association for the mentally retarded for several years. He was president of North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded in 1967 and was chairing the 1969 Flowers of Hope fund-raising campaign at the time of his death. For three years he was adult services chairman of N.H.A.M.R. Born May 4, 1910 at Birmingham, England, he had 23 years of service with the Royal Navy as chief engine-room artificer, including service during the second war. He came to Canada in 1936, lived at Etobicoke, then moved to Milton six years ago. Mr. Isham was an active member of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 136, Milton, and a member of Grace Anglican Church.

Survivors include his wife Winifred, sons Edward of Milton, David of Port Credit, Colin of Dartmouth, N.S., Russell of Newmarket, Gareth of Perth, Australia, and Richard of Milton. Two sisters Grace and Nell also survive at Birmingham, England.

Rev. M. C. Christensen conducted the funeral service at the McKersie Funeral Home on June 16. Members of the Legion and N.H.A.M.R. attended in group. Mr. Isham was cremated at Weston.

the Parker-Waites family reunion on Sunday at Mono Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Alec Patterson of Winnipeg were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. David Stewart.

Members of the Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. Ward Bruce's new home on the highway for their meeting. Mrs. E. Fisher presided and Mrs. Ralph Sinclair led the devotional. "New acts in Missions" Roll call was answered by "A father's day verse". Mrs. G. Lang and Mrs. V. Stewart sang a duet. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. W. Bruce. Mrs. G. Aitken and Mrs. V. Stewart assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

Rev. Gordon Hastings, assistant minister of Knox Presbyterian Church, Guelph, was guest speaker at the 80th anniversary service at the local Knox Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. His topic "Dare to Care" was both timely and instructive in these troubled times, when people are indifferent, and don't want to become involved in anything worthwhile — a truly "don't care" attitude. In conclusion the speaker stated "God sometimes says 'no' because He cares for us."

The speaker was introduced by the minister Rev. D. J. Herbison who also conducted the service. The junior choir sang two numbers accompanied by the organist Mrs. Norman McKenzie. Brenda Bruce and Linda McKenzie also contributed a duet. The musical numbers were well received and a credit to the young people.

A goodly number of former members were present for the happy occasion, along with local friends and members of Burns Church, Erin.

Mrs. Byron Bruce and Gordon Aitken greeted the guests and following the service refreshments were served in the basement by the members of the Ladies' Aid. Many availed themselves of renewing acquaintances and meeting new friends.

Mrs. W. Stewart buried at Everton

An active member of the Everton Christian church, Janet Louise (Nettie) Stewart, R. R. 1, Guelph, passed away in St. Joseph's hospital, Guelph, on June 18. She had had a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Stewart belonged to church groups and was the organist for 32 years.

Funeral service at the Runley-Shoemaker funeral home, Acton, was held on June 20 conducted by the Rev. Basil Metz. Interment was in Everton. Pallbearers were E. M. Abbott, Toronto; A. Murray Stewart, Bill Jackson, Edwin Jettin, Everton; George Mitchell, Rockwood and Alex Kingsbury, Acton.

Mrs. Stewart was born September 13, 1884 in Erasosa township, daughter of John D. Abbott and Grace Ann Mitchell of Erasosa. She was married in 1923 and her husband John A. Stewart predeceased her. She had lived many years in Everton. She is survived by son William T. R. R. 1, Guelph, daughter Grace (Mrs. W. G. McKee) Winona, Mississippi, and a brother Edward Abbott, Bismack, N. D. She was predeceased by brother Dr. James M. Abbott, Erin.

Miss Irene Gibbons killed in accident

Miss Irene Gibbons of 171 Bristol St., Guelph, was killed Sunday night, June 15, when she was thrown from a car in a collision about five miles south of the city.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gibbons of Acton, she leaves nieces and nephews including Mrs. Henry Deveau. For many years Miss Gibbons was a dressmaker at Colonial Dresses.

She lived with a niece, Mrs. William O'Drowsky and Mr. O'Drowsky and the three had gone for a drive when the accident occurred at 8.30 p.m. at the intersection of 35 county road and 34 county road, Puslinch. Driver of the second car involved was Emil Fucks of Kitchener. The three were taken to hospital and Mr. Fucks has since been released. Mr. and Mrs. O'Drowsky received injuries including broken ribs.

Funeral service for Miss Gibbons was Wednesday morning, June 18, at the Church of Our Lady, Guelph, with interment in Marymount cemetery.

Rev. W. L. Ryan celebrated the requiem high mass and Rev. P. J. Driscoll officiated at the burial. Pallbearers were Dee Valerite, Thomas Young, Bert Gibbons, Robert O'Drowsky, Joseph Jackson and Austin Gibbons.
