Acton Rovers, of the Golden Horseshoe Soccer League, are beginning to attract several local fans, to their games at the high school field.

The Mason Knit, sponsored Rovers are entered in the five team loop, along with three Georgetown teams, Juventus, Eagles and Royals, and Toronto Shamrocks.

The league, in its first year of operation, is about half way through a 24 game schedule. Rovers are presently holding down third place, with a record of five wins and six losses.

At the end of the regular season, the fifth place team will drop out, and the other four will enter league playoffs.

In addition to the local high school field, the league also uses the pitch at the Ukrainian Camp, on the Fourth Line of Esqueping township and the Cedarvale field in Georgetown.

Next year, the league hopes to expand. Teams from Brampton and Newmarket have already indicated interest in joining the league.
