

Tuck-O'Rourke

Standards of white and yellow mums decorated Knox Presbyterian church for the marriage of Margaret Anne O'Rourke and Donald Nelson Tuck on June 14. The Rev. Andrew McKenzie officiated at the double-ring ceremony at 3:30 p.m. and E. A. Hansen played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Charles O'Rourke, 11 John St. N., Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tuck, Queen St., Georgetown.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a traditional white floor length gown of silk lace over taffeta with long fly-point sleeves, and a lace train falling from the shoulders.

Organdy petals trimmed with sea pearls held her three-tiered shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Clifford Scott, and the bridesmaids were Miss Pat Tuck, sister of the groom, and Miss Terry Fleming, cousin of the bride. They wore floor-length gowns of green, crepe and chiffon and carried bouquets of yellow pom pom mums.

Miss Christine Hoare, cousin of the groom, was flower girl, wearing a floor length dress of yellow crepe and carrying yellow mums in a nosegay.

John Hoare, cousin of the groom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Robert O'Rourke, brother of the bride, and Don Stewart, a friend of the groom.

Dinner was served to guests in the church basement, and later a dance was held in the Legion Hall. Guests came from Georgetown, Brampton, Brantford, Toronto, Clarkson, Rockwood, Camp Borden, Kitchener, Galt, Milton, Montreal, Calgary and Acton. Among them were Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas O'Rourke, Rockwood, grandparents of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a rose A-line dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The groom's mother wore a pale blue dress with matching face coat, blue and white accessories and pink roses.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Florida. The bride wore a two-piece blue knit suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

They are living at Churchill Rd. S., Acton.

For the bride-to-be, a cup and saucer shower was held by Mrs. Herb Ritchie, Mrs. Dave Johnson and Mrs. Earl Brears; a miscellaneous shower by Miss Pat Tuck and Mrs. John Hoare; and a miscellaneous shower by the office staff of the H. K. Porter company.

Johnstone-Wilson

In a June ceremony at St. Alban's Anglican church, Acton, Michelle Marlene Wilson and Ronald Matthew Johnstone were married. The Rev. Harry Dawson officiated, at the afternoon ceremony on June 28, in a setting of white, and pink, carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Coates of Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Johnstone, Acton.

The bride wore a full-skirted gown of chantilly lace over taffeta with tiers of lace forming a train. A pearl-sprinkled white rose held her fingertip veil and she carried red roses with white stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Miss Christine Sale of Milton, cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Kathy Mundy, Acton, a cousin of the groom. The attendants wore dresses of pink Georgian crepe and carried pink and white carnations.

The flower girls were Ronda and Julie Parsons, Acton, nieces of the bride, who wore blue tulle with white lace and carried white carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father; Rick Henderson was groomsmen and the ushers were George Johnstone, brother of the groom, and Garry Mundy, a cousin.

Mrs. F. Oakes played the organ.

The reception was held in the Legion Hall attended by guests from Florida, Goderich, Windsor, Guelph, Burlington, Oakville, Georgetown, Fergus, Milton and Acton.

Mrs. Coates wore soft pink over taffeta ensemble decorated with rhinestones, white lace accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a beige and brown ensemble, beige accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Coates of Fergus.

The bride attended school in Milton and Acton, and the groom attended Acton schools.

The couple left on a honeymoon trip, the bride wearing white and blue lace with an orchid corsage.

A miscellaneous shower was held for the bride by Miss Jo-Ann Kelly of Milton, a cousin, and Mrs. Kathy Mundy, Acton, a cousin of the groom.
