Indians topic U.C.W. meeting

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Tuesday evening, August 19, the U.C.W. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Shortill with 14 members and one visitor present.

Mrs. Bob Kerr gave the devotion on the "Power of Prayer". Business items arising from the minutes were dealt with. After this Mrs. E. Snow gave a topic on the "Culture of China" in her usual interesting manner.

Mrs. Connie Johnston touched off a discussion on Canadian Indians in Ontario. Several others took up the subject, giving their views on experiences regarding Sioux, Look Out and PARRY Sound settlements.

Mrs. Grace McEnery and Mrs. Lois McLean served lunch with the help of the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson had a very happy three weeks in Scotland quite recently. While there, they renewed motor trip to the north of Scotland. They took many wonderful pictures in beautiful colors to make their holiday time more visual to their family here at home.

A pleasant evening was spent Friday of this past week. Friends and neighbors gathered in the Community Centre to honor a recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. John Pollo.

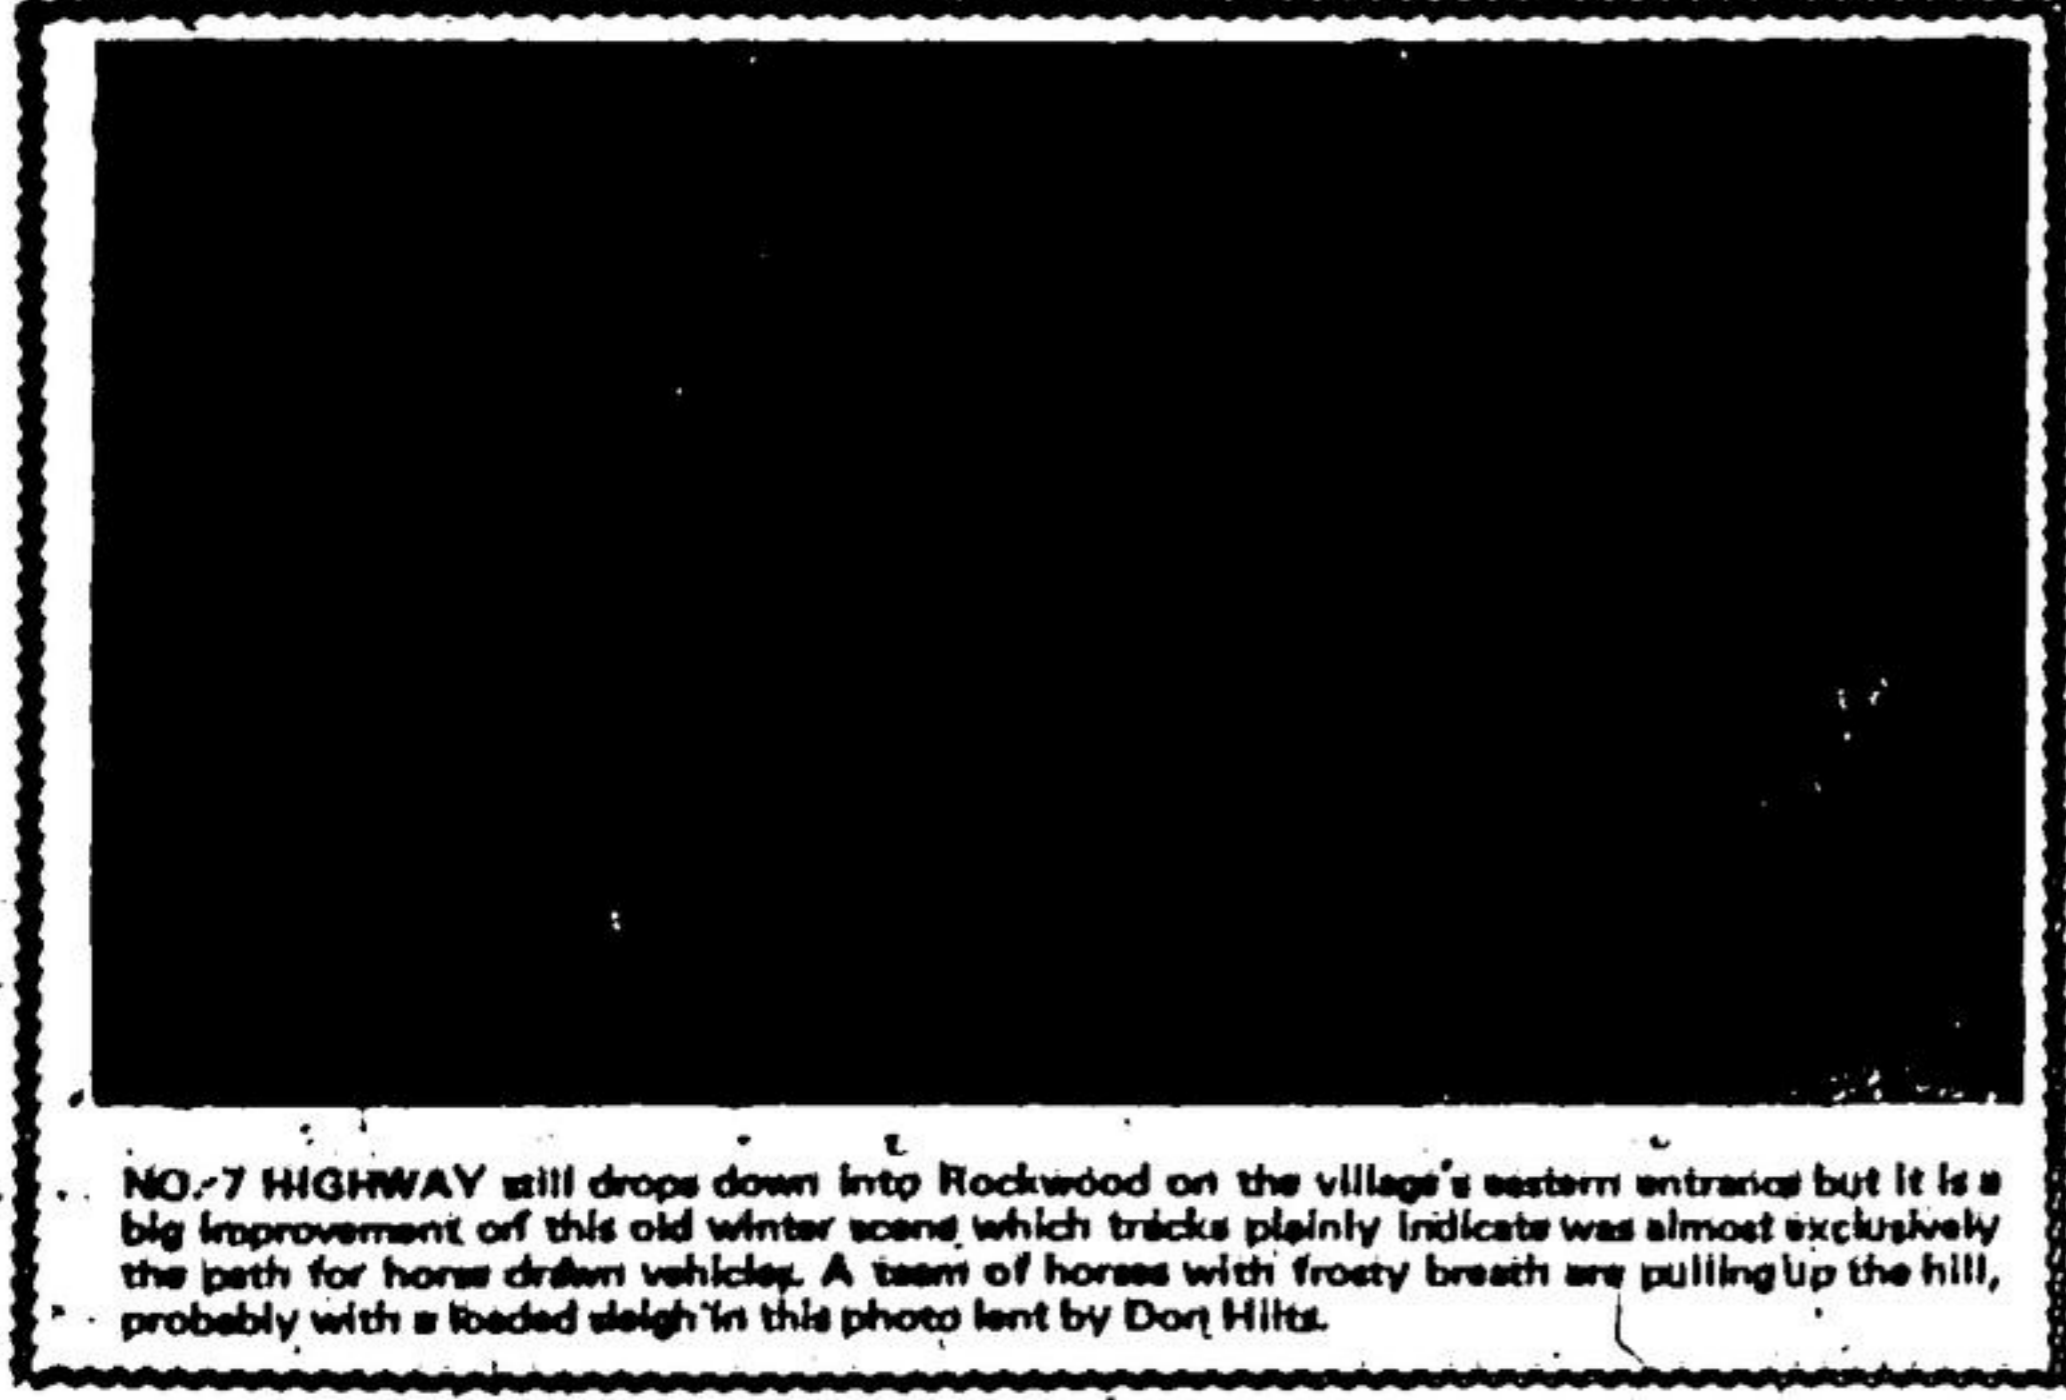

A friendly game of euchre passed a few pleasant hours, after which Mrs. Jamieson wished Ruth and John happiness in their life together. On behalf of us all they were presented with a cookie jar of money. Both replied fittingly. Lunch was served at the tables.

Kathy French, Arlene, Karen and Mark Shortill spent a night or two with Wendy and Craig Woods and on Saturday all attended the Exhibition.

Dave Murray has new post

Dave Murray, resources manager of the Halton Conservation Authority has been appointed liaison officer of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority. He will serve in his new post in an advisory capacity but will continue with the Halton Authority in his present position. Mr. Murray has been with the local Conservation Authority for over 10 years.

NO. 7 HIGHWAY will drop down into Rockwood on the village's eastern entrance but it is a big improvement of this old winter scene which tracks plainly indicate was almost exclusively the path for horse drawn vehicles. A team of horses with frothy breath are pulling up the hill, probably with a loaded sleigh in this photo lent by Don Hiltz.

Community mourns loss of Mrs. George Robertson

By Mrs. R. McLean
Ebenzer and the community suffered a great loss when Mrs. George Robertson was called to her reward, after a brief illness. She formerly assisted with the choir, and had a number of music pupils. She also did occasional supply teaching in the schools.

Her musical talents enriched many a program for the U.C.W., of which she was a life member; also for the Dublin Women's Institute. Her artistic talents are exhibited in her lovely home, which was always open for hospitality. The funeral was held on August 20, with Rev. Russell Finley in charge. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

The pallbearers were Ed. Pasmore, Bill McLean, Ray Thompson, Sam Finley, Willard Britton and Horace Blyth. The community extends sympathy to her husband and daughter, Jean of New York.

Mr. Finley's sermon was based on Mark 12: 18-36. It always seems easy to tell other people what to do. The Spartans' rules were, "Shoot straight and tell the truth." Today, we have a different set of rules.

to interpret Moses' law. This was cut down to 163 rules. The question of the seven brothers who married the same woman was a hard question. When the scribe asked what was the first commandment, Jesus was glad. Jesus was the first to put together the two great commandments, love the Lord and love your neighbor. The love of God comes first. To return God's love, we should love with the whole being. Zaccheus looked in Jesus' eyes and saw the man he was meant to be.

There are days of dependence, but many days of sunshine. Jesus stirs our souls with a longing for a better life. We should conserve our strength, not wear ourselves out trying to prove how much we love God. All the world is our neighbor.

A blacksmith did a repair job on a rake and a hoe. When the owner came for them, the blacksmith said there would be no charge. When the owner still insisted on paying, the blacksmith said, "Can't you let a man do something to stretch his soul?" If you love God and your neighbor, you are following the rules which Jesus gave priority.

Remember Ebenzer's 147th Anniversary is being celebrated this year on the first Sunday in September at 11:30 and 7:30, with Rev. Gordon Turner, of Acton, as special speaker.

Another date to reserve is the last Sunday evening in September, a memorial service in honour of the late George Thomas is planned.
