Halton makes fine showing

Dairy winners at Ex

By H. J. Stanley
Several competitors from Halton County competed in the dairy classes at the C.N.E.

In the Holstein section Howard Tarzwell exhibited the first prize bull calf which went on to be the reserve Junior Champion. Tarzwell was also fourth in the Junior Yearling Class, 11th in Senior Yearling, and second in the four Year Old Class.

Claude Picket placed third in two year old, fourth and fifth in three year old, 12th in four year old, and fifth and sixth in the five year old classes.

Some of the top animals were also bred in Halton County. The winning Grand Champion Bull, Halgetlee Dale Ruben, was bred by Tom McGee; the first prize two year old was bred by William Bennett; and second place aged cow by Gordon R. Sinclair and sons.

In the Jersey section B. H. Bull and son won the Premier Breeder and Exhibitor Banners. Their cattle were third in the bull calf, 15th for yearling bull, third in junior yearling female, seventh and sixteenth in senior yearling female, first in two year old, first and fifth in three year old, 19th in four year old, first and fourth in five year old, and first in breeder's herd. The five year old cow Brampton Aim R Carom was awarded the Grand Champion of the show.

Rock Ella Jersey Farms Ltd. placed first and second in the four year old class, seventh in bull calf, eighth in yearling bull, sixth in junior yearling female, third in two year old, ninth and 13th in three year old, 15th in five year old, and second in the breeders herd.

D. H. McCaig and son had 14th place bull calf, 11th in junior yearling female, third and ninth in senior yearling, sixth and tenth in three year olds, fifth in four year olds, and fifth in the five year olds. They placed third in the breeders herd.

Fred Nurse placed 11th with his two year old, seventh and eighth in the five year old class, and was sixth for breeders herd.

In the Guernsey section Halton was represented by H. L. Pickering and sons with seven head. They picked up the following prize ribbons—third, seventh, eighth, ninth, ninth, 10th, and 11th.

Halton entries also did well in the inter-breed best udder class. Ken Ella was fourth, Fred Nurse and sons sixth, B.H. Bull and sons 12th, and Claude Picket 13th.

Acton 4-H Calf Club practice showing calves

The August meeting of the Acton 4-H Calf Club was held on August 18, at the family farms of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lasby.

The meeting began at the Murray farm with club leader Russell Murray explaining and demonstrating how to show a dairy calf. The members practiced showing using 4-H Calf club calves.

Jack James, the leaders and members pointed out errors and helped the showmen correct them and Mr. James showed the members how to groom and clip a dairy calf. Carol Somerville thanked the Murray family.

The members moved to the Lasby family farm where a demonstration on how to show a beef calf was given. The members practiced showing 4-H club calves. Again Jack James, the leaders and members explained and helped correct the mistakes made by the showmen.

President Keith Aitken officially opened the meeting with the 4-H Pledge. Secretary Leah Leslie called the roll which was answered by all. The minutes of the July meeting were adopted as read.

Nursery specialist joins local office

By H. J. Stanley
D. Burke McNeill joined the Fruit and Vegetable staff of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food, Soils and Crops Branch, on August 15.

Mr. McNeill is located at the Department of Agriculture offices, 181 Main Street, Milton. While his main responsibility will be in the nursery field, he will also be assisting in the Fruit and Vegetable Extension program in this area. He comes to our staff after a number of years with a commercial nursery in Manitoba.

He is married with four daughters. His wife and daughters have been active in 4-H homemaking club work.

"Meat in the Menu" newest 4-H project

"Meat in the Menu" is the 4-H Homemaking Club project in Halton County this fall. Members will learn how to choose, use, and cook meat for family meals, at a series of eight meetings, to make the best use of meat and the money spent for it, the various cuts of meat, and how to buy, store, and prepare them. The members will also learn the value of meat in the diet, and how to score their daily meals.

The Training School for local leaders will be conducted in Milton on Sept. 10 and 11 by County Home Economist Doreen Hamill. New clubs are always welcomed by the Home Economics Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food. 4-H Homemaking clubs are open to all girls between the ages of 12 and 26. Additional information may be obtained from the Home Economist, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food, 181 Main Street, Milton.

Calvin Aitken, Rodney, 95; Norman Harris, Rodney, 94; Duncan McPhedran, Harmon, 93; Alex McPhedran, Soux, 92; S. E. Griffin and Son, Russell, 91; Harold McIntyre, Kelsay, 90; Donald Matthews, Russell, 89; Ben Fuchs, Garry, 88; Wallace Swackhamer, Stormont, 84; Ken Murray, Rodney, 83.

Times change

The pattern of farm living is rapidly changing and the old phrase "Oh, for the peace and quiet of the country" is no longer true. The new machinery, chemicals and modern methods of farming present quite a challenge to learn how to use them all safely. Unless this knowledge of safe operation is carried out in everyday practice you are not fulfilling your responsibility to your family.

Worry

Is there a hole in your home insurance big enough to drive a car through?

Maybe you ought to think about a switch to Safeco. A Safeco Homeowner Policy covers the gaps and eliminates overlaps.

IT'S ALL AIR-SHOW!

LI. Col. Donn F. Eisele of Apollo 7, first astronaut to visit Canada, will officially open the Canadian International Air Show at 3 p.m. on its second day, Friday Aug. 29.

One of the world's biggest Air Shows — certainly the most spectacular! So big this year, it runs for four days. Come on down — get a front-row view of the excitement!

US Navy Blue Angels High-speed precision aerobatics in Mach 2 Phantom fighters.

US Army Golden Knights A team of men who've made sky-diving a precision art. Watch free falls from 13,500 feet!

Royal Air Force A display of strength and speed by Lightning fighters and giant Vulcan bombers.

Ed Mahler and Harold Krier, world championship civilian aerobatic team, will perform low-level aerobatics, over the waterfront.

Canadian Armed Forces will open the show with a massive fly-past of Tutor jets, Yukons, Hercules, Falcons, Trackers, Argus, Voyagers, Voodoo interceptors... an awe-inspiring display of precision flying. You'll also see water-bombing, formation flying, and a flypast by a lone Spitfire. There's 2½-hours of excitement in the world's most spectacular Air Show!

This Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 3 p.m.
