Ron, who becomes the youngest president in the Association's history, has always been keenly interested in minor sports and gained valuable experience last winter, when he acted as timekeeper and statistician for Acton's four entries in the Tri-County league, Ron has also served as statistician for the juvenile lucrosse team during the

The Association's three other elected offices were filled by returnees, Don Lindsay, as vice-president, John Creasey, as secretary and Ed Norton as treasurer.

Appointed by the new executive, were Carl Timbers, as registrar, John Weldon, as project chairman, Steve Goy as equipment manager and Denis Gibbons, as Tri-County league representative.

The executive discussed plans for operating a dunking machine, at the Acton Fall Fair to raise funds for the coming sesson.

Ted Pope, chairman of the Acton Legion Minor Hockey Assocation, which operates house leagues in Acton attended the meeting and the possibility of a joint registration between the Legion and Tri-County groups was discussed. The Tri-County will hold its next meeting at the Community Centre, next Wednesday night at 8. New members are still urgently required and anyone interested in helping out in any way should attend.

Notes and Quotes

from the world of sport

Acton Mason Knit Rovers played perhaps their best game of the season last night, as they drubbed Brampton Juventus 8-3 to win their league semi-final series.

Rovers, who will now face the winner of the series between the two Georgetown teams, Royals and Eagles, got three goals each from Mick Davis and Frank Volso.

Herb's Delivery temporarily stalled Station Hotel's bid for a fourth straight Acton Softball Association championship when they surprised the innkeepers 12-11 in 10 innings last night.

Pete's Barber Shop, after romping to a 25-5 win in their first game with Barker Real Estate, found themselves in much closer games the next two times, but still managed to win the series in straight games.
