

Wedding, Gideon service, corn roasts in week's news

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Mr. Eddie Smith has been on the sick list for the past week. Miss Bonnie Cotton of Fergus visited Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McEnery last week. Mrs. Richard Shortill Jr. has taken a position in Robertson's store, Osprey. Friday evening the Sunday School Executive met to plan their program. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Law returned from a two week motor trip to Vancouver and back. They report a very enjoyable tour. The church service at 9:45 was conducted by a representative of the Gideons in the person of Mr. Douglas of Meadowdale. His splendid address was most interesting. Mr. Douglas is the Probation Officer for Hampton area, but takes time from his busy schedule to help with the

Gideons and also the Bible Society. A happy event took place on Saturday on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spear when among 80 guests their daughter Brenda June became the Bride of Mr. Edmund Hillier. We congratulate the young newlyweds. Two Corn Roast parties took place here in the village on Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Beswick and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dick, visited with the McLean's last week. Mrs. Dick's health is improved, we are glad to say. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McEnery and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLean motored to Mr. Forest last Sunday, and enjoyed a picnic together with Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson and boys. They had journeyed down from their home at Tara. Miss Anne Shortill began her duties at Harrison School on Tuesday. She is teaching a class of Grade two's. Anne took a summer course on Primary Methods this summer. Mrs. Marjorie Newman has returned from a motor trip to the Maritimes. She reports a splendid holiday touring the rugged Atlantic provinces. We welcome to our 7th line neighbourhood Mr. and Mrs. M. Todd, who have moved from Georgetown to their beautiful new home above Ballinafad. They have two children Penny who is attending Brisbane School and an older boy who goes to College Heights school in Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Campbell have purchased a farm on no. 10 Sideroad below Erin, the farm which was the former Bingham place. They are building there.

ACTON FIREFIGHTERS were called to Georgetown early Saturday morning to help extinguish a huge fire at Beaver Lumber Company. Although the cost of damage is not yet known, the fire levelled the company's main warehouse and firefighters were not able to save anything from the building. Heat from the fire was so intense that it cracked plate glass windows at Georgetown Hydro offices across the street. Georgetown Fire Chief Jack Cunningham told the Free Press this week that although Acton Firefighters experienced a problem with water pressure when they hooked their hoses to a hydrant, it was not a serious factor in preventing the fire from being brought under control, since there were other sources of water in the immediate area that were used. The fire is presently being investigated by the Fire Marshal's Office. (Staff Photo)

Thankoffering well attended; family gatherings in report

By Mrs. F. MacArthur
There was a very good attendance last Sunday evening at the Thankoffering meeting at Churchill Church. With friends attending from Brampton, Limehouse, Acton, Erin and Hillsburgh also many from around home. Rev. and Mrs. Murray of Caledon East showed their beautiful colored slides and gave a very interesting talk on their work and life while in India. Mrs. W. Thompson introduced Rev. and Mrs. Murray. The service was conducted by Mrs. W. Swackhamer assisted by Mrs. N. Turner and Mrs. Harold Griffin. The anthem the choir sang was O How Ye Heard of Him. Mrs. E. Anderson and Mrs. A. Winter received the offering. Mrs. Fobury led in prayer dedicating the offering. During the social hour the Murrays answered many questions showing the enthusiasm of their work while on the mission field. They worked there approximately 30 years. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton visited and attended a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair in Guelph.

Sunday afternoon along with Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Landborough, Mr. and Mrs. Dickson, and the Sinclair family and grandchildren. It was a farewell for Mac and Helen Sinclair and family who are moving soon to California. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Granger of Port Credit, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winkler of Clarkson were guests on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binne spent 10 days holidaying at Busbygoon, with Mr. and Mrs. William Maynard of Brampton at their cottage. They also visited friends in Peterboro for a day. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Julian of Brampton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner, David and Julian on Sunday and stayed over to attend the Sunday evening thankoffering service. Friends from Churchill community will be sorry to hear Mr. W. J. McDonald is a patient in Guelph General Hospital for treatment. We hope he will soon be able to return home much improved. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Swackhamer and Brenda were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griffin and Smith. A birthday dinner for Betty Hamilton was held on Sunday with the family. Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith and Stephanie were home to enjoy it too.

LIMEHOUSE

W.I. meeting, weddings booth, funeral in news

By Mrs. A. Benton
The W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Ellerby in Erin on Wednesday evening, eleven attending. The president read sentences concerning, "Three Things of Importance", and Hymn of All Nations was sung in opening. The roll call "What Safety Means to You" brought considerable discussion. Mrs. Roughley will accept orders for Christmas cards for the W.I. Mrs. Sanford convener of the program asked each to relate a current event. She called on Mrs. Roughley to explain the motto "Live a Little Longer with Safety". Convener of standing committees gave short reports on their subjects. After singing "Throw Out the Life Line", the hostess served a tasty lunch. Mrs. Noble extended courtesies. Mrs. Sanford and her mother Mrs. Mitchell spent holidays near Waubashene. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Smith (nee Eleanora Karn) who were married in Limehouse Presbyterian Church by Rev. F. N. Young Saturday, followed by the reception in Limehouse Memorial Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Anderson and son Morris motored to Unity, Sask. for holidays this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roughley were guests at the Dunsap-Smith wedding in Green Briar Presbyterian Church, Brantford and the reception following at the White Horse Inn, Paris on Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benton, Mr. and Mrs. Geoff. Denny and Mr. John Charlton were among those attending the funeral of the late William Erskine at Markdale on Wednesday. Our sympathy goes to Mrs. Erskine and son, Joe in their time of sudden bereavement. The W.A. ladies had their biggest financial turnover to date, when they served food and drinks from their booth at the Steam-Era, Milton.
