

Linda Smith, Murray Smith wed in Windsor ceremony

St. John's Anglican church, Windsor, was decorated with baskets of white gladiolas and white candles for the summer marriage of Linda Susan Smith and Murray Cameron Smith Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Smith, Windsor.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray C. Smith, 96 Mill St. E., Acton, has resumed his studies at the University of Guelph toward his Master's degree.

Rev. W. Peach performed the double-ring ceremony at 4.30 p.m. on August 9.

The bride wore a traditional white gown of organza and lace with fitted bodice, full skirt and lily point sleeves trimmed with seed pearls. Her organza pill box held her floor length Spanish mantilla of lace. She wore her grandmother's gold locket and carried a bouquet of white carnations, fern and ivy centred with red roses.

Maid of honor was Mrs. W. Frank Cooper, St. Catharines, sister of the groom and the bridesmaids were Janice Ross, Brampton, and Gertrude Kreppenhof, Glen Williams, both friends. They were dressed alike in white shantung sheaths with blue lace attached coats and blue flowered headdresses with fly veils. They carried nosegays of blue-tipped white carnations.

The flower girl, Jeanine Smith, sister of the bride, also wore white and blue and carried a basket of similar flowers.

Groomsman was Douglas Windsor of Thornhill, a classmate of the groom.

Ushers were brothers of the bride, Graham and Richard Smith, uncle of the bride Alan Miller, brother-in-law of the groom Frank Cooper and friend Carmen Woodburn.

Dinner and evening reception were in St. John's parish hall with guests welcomed from Leeds, England, Dayton, Ohio, Clarkson, Rockwood, Kitchener, Milton, Toronto, Brampton, Georgetown, St. Catharines, Guelph and Acton.

LINDA SMITH and Murray Smith were married in Windsor, and are living in Guelph.

Dinner, dance follow Walker-Dredge vows

On August 30 at 5 o'clock Dora Irene Dredge and Douglas John Walker were married in Boston Presbyterian church. The Rev. Stanley J. Smith officiated for the double-ring ceremony and the church was decorated with white glads.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dredge of R. R. 3, Milton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hector L. Walker, Walkerton.

The bride wore a full length peau de soie gown and attached train, trimmed with rows of ribboned lace on neckline, cuffs and train.

Her three-tiered short veil was held by a petalled headdress and she carried red roses and white carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Linda Miller, R. R. 2, Campbellville, a friend, and the bridesmaids were Miss Terry Curtis, R. R. 1, Georgetown, a cousin; and Miss Marion Dredge, R. R. 3, Milton.

sister. They wore full length pale blue dresses with ruffled lace trim and long sheer sleeves. They carried yellow gladiolas and wore similar blooms in their hair.

Two flower girls were Brenda Dredge, R. R. 1, Acton and Lori Walker, the groom's sister, who wore pale blue lace and carried yellow mums and blue chrysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Bob Reay, Walkerton and the ushers were Larry Dredge, brother of the bride and Eddie Walker, the groom's brother.

Mrs. Flora Slocki was organist; Miss Sharon Hume was soloist singing The Lord's Prayer.

Dinner at Boston church was followed by a dance at Ligny hall.

Guests were present from Walkerton, Toronto, Guelph, Burlington, Brantford, Georgetown, Saskatchewan, Owen Sound, Williamstown, Acton and Milton.

Among the guests were the grandparents of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mitchell and Mr. Bert Dredge; grandparents of the groom Mrs. M. V. Walker and Mrs. Loretta Molto.

Before leaving on their wedding trip to Inverhuron, the bride and groom visited the bride's great-grandmother in Martin House, Milton Manor. The bride wore a blue and white going away dress with pink carnation corsage.

Showers for the bride were held by Mrs. Joyce Wayne, R. R. 3, Milton; Miss Brenda Miller, Milton; Miss Sharon Hume, R. R. 5, Milton; Mrs. Georgina Va Fleet, Acton; Mrs. Celia Smith, Waterdown and Mrs. Lois Dredge, R. R. 3, Milton.

Horse and carriage transport bride, groom

Transportation to and from the church in a horse and carriage added an old fashioned touch to a Limehouse wedding ceremony on August 30.

The bride, Mary Suzanne Sheppard, wore a centennial wedding gown of ivory antique satin with matching lace trim.

The gown had a tight bodice and full hooped skirt, high neckline and leg-of-mutton sleeves. She wore a headband of browneyed susans and carried a colonial bouquet of roses and browneyed susans.

Bridesmaids were college classmates, Misses Margaret Campbell, Ottawa and Patricia Morrison, Deep River and her niece Mary Anne Pennington, Idlington. Another niece, little Anne Calpeau was flower girl.

They wore gowns of the same period, with low necklines and short puffed sleeves, Misses Campbell and Morrison in old gold antique satin, Misses Pennington and Calpeau in green. Senior attendants carried nosegays of yellow daisies and the flower girl, a basket.

The groom, Brian D. Martin, son of Lt. Col. K. G. and Mrs. Martin, Ottawa, asked William Garvin, Ottawa to be best man. His brother also of Ottawa and Ted Parkinson, Whitby, were ushers.

Rev. Norman Young officiated at the four o'clock ceremony in Limehouse Presbyterian church. Mrs. Donald Miller, Inverhuron Beach, was soloist, and her husband was organist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Ben Sheppard, R. R. 1, Limehouse, and her father gave her in marriage.

Wedding guests followed the bridal party to the Sheppard's home, Irongate, just down the 6th Line from the church for a garden reception. The horse and buggy, with attendants on horseback, was provided by William Van Dam of the Springhill Riding Stable.

Leaving for their honeymoon at the Sheppard cottage at Inverhuron Beach, the bride wore an ivory crepe pant suit.

They will be living in Kingston where the groom is entering his final year of electrical engineering and the bride her final year in engineering physics at Queen's University.

Receiving the guests, the bride's mother wore a pink silk sheath with lace coat and matching flowered hat and pink carnations. Assisting, the groom's mother chose a mint green re-embroidered Alencon lace sheath with crystal trim, matching petalled hat and corsage of white carnations.

Among the guests were the grandmother of the bride Mrs. J. Miller, Windsor, formerly of England; grandmother of the groom Mrs. A. J. Murray, Acton, and an uncle of the bride, Alan Miller of England.

On their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Montreal they visited Man and His World. For travelling, the bride donned a white lace mini-dress with bell sleeves, white accessories and red rose corsage. They are living now at 29 Grange St., Guelph. The groom is working toward his Master's degree at the University of Guelph and the bride is employed as an executive secretary at ITT Industries.

A rehearsal party was held by the groom's parents at the Holiday Inn, Windsor, for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Alfred Long and Miss Susan Perry co-hosted a couples' shower for them, and friends and relatives held a miscellaneous shower at Ballinafad hall.

40th anniversary

A 40th wedding anniversary party was given on Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lambert, 68 Bower Ave., by their daughters Mrs. Ron Gillespie, Mrs. Betty May Arbic and Mrs. Allan Mochrie, assisted by Mrs. Dora Guthrie and Miss Dorothy Simmons.

Many neighbors, relatives, friends and U.C.W. members called to extend best wishes to the couple on the happy occasion. They enjoyed many cards, flowers and tokens of good wishes.

After Mr. and Mrs. Lambert cut the special wedding cake, a buffet luncheon was served.

Mrs. Nelson Lambert and Mrs. John Lambert poured tea and two grandchildren, Cheryl Gillespie and Janine Gillespie, were in charge of the guest book.

Their two attendants at the wedding of 40 years before were both present, Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling of Mimosa. Guests came from Clarkson, Cooksville, Grimsby, Mimosa, Guelph, Rockwood and Acton.
