Return to town

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbons are back home in Acton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons were both born and raised in Acton. They moved to Guelph 12 years ago when their oldest son Peter was taking his skating training. Peter turned pro and taught in Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo, Fergus, Elmira and Beeton. He then went to England and was a lead skater with Silver Blades and Holiday on Ice. He returned to Canada and joined the Ice Capades and has been with them for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons continued on in Guelph until their youngest son Garry completed his high school education at Bishop Macdonnell. He graduated this year with first class honors and is now attending Mohawk College in Hamilton.

They also have a daughter (Delaine) Mrs. Bob Rogers, formerly of Acton, and four grandchildren Madeline, Kim, Paul and Jim. They now make their home in Victoria B.C. Their eldest daughter Madeline is falling into her uncle Peter's footsteps and is doing very well in her figure skating. She is a member of the Esquimalt club.

During their stay in Guelph Mr. Gibbons commuted to Acton, where he is an employee of Beardmore, and Co. Mrs. Gibbons during this time in Guelph worked with the Red Cross and has been working with the V.O.N. Homemaking services.

In a double ting ceremony in Trinity United church on September 6 at 2.30 p.m. Brends Lee McKeown and Stephen Howard Coles were married by the Rev. Gordon Turner. Haskets of pink and white gladioli were placed at the front of the church for the wedding, and George Elliott played the organ.

where you give away too much The one no trump open bid is made on a balanced hand with 16-18 points. There are two points to note. The first is 16-18 points and this is where too many players stop. The second is equally important - a balanced hand. This means no singleton or voids and usually no five card majors. Balanced hands are 4-3-3-3 distribution, 4-4-3-2 distribution and occasionally 5-3-3-2
