Recall "good neighbor" student, visits in news

By Mrs. R. Shortill
Mrs. Laura Smith of Fergus spent Thanksgiving with her son and family Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith.
Mr. and Mrs. Bud Snow recently flew to Edmonton to attend the Canadian Good Roads Convention. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell. Returning by train they spent a day at Bow, Alberta, with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Marshall, Mrs. Snow's cousins.
Mr. and Mrs. Chester Milk of Rockwood were Thanksgiving visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Snow.
We extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin on their 60th anniversary.
Miss Inge Oakes and Miss Lillian Shortill spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Shortill.
A large number from here attended the funeral of the late William McDonald in Acton on Thursday. We express our sympathy to family and friends. He was a good neighbor and a good friend to all who knew him. Many happy picnics we people of Ballinafad have enjoyed at the picnic area of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald.
Robert Keir, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Keir, Fallsbrook Farm, is back at Guelph University. Robert, having completed Grade 13 at Georgetown by April, was able to enroll in the summer semester so now is well on in the second semester.
Rev. L. Duby new posting
After two years as curate of Holy Trinity church, Welland, the Rev. Laurence Duby will become rector of his own charge, the Church of the Good Shepherd, St. Catharines, next month. He is the son of Mayor and Mrs. Les Duby, and is married to the former Mary Lou Creighton of Acton.
Please like salt no better than your pet likes fleas. Try "salting" your dog or cat to discourage fleas. Incidentally, a liberal sprinkling in Fido's doghouse helps keep fleas away.

EBENEZER

Sunday school jaunt trip to west in news

By Mrs. Ron McLean
Mr. Finley's Sunday talk dealt with the idea of rewards. The Old Testament message was that if you please God, you will have material benefits. Job reminds people that if you have troubles, it isn't because you displeased God. The first reward of the Christian is inner satisfaction. During the war a plastic surgeon who earned upward of $30,000 a year, gave it up to help airmen who had been disfigured in combat. He said, "I just want to help where the need is greatest." The second reward of the Christian life is more work; and the third is being closer to God. Ebenezer Sunday school pupils and their parents are planning to visit the Enchanted

Doll House in Rockwood this Friday. They are to meet at the church at 7 p.m. and will return there afterwards to have lunch and enjoy a social time.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Early have returned from a trip west. They visited their daughter Mary in Vancouver, and also saw Flora Moffat in Victoria. They especially enjoyed the boat trip to Alaska.
Mr. and Mrs. David Munro enjoyed a visit from his parents from Manitoulin Island. They also attended the ploughing match at Paris.
Mrs. Claude Johnson has been a patient in Guelph General Hospital.
Many thanks to all my friends who wished me a speedy recovery from my recent illness.

Meateors find pork chops best

On October 18 the Bannockburn Meateors held their fifth meeting at the Guelph apartment of the assistant leader Mrs. Marilyn Cox. The group of girls said the 4-H pledge in unison; then, since the secretary was absent, leader Mrs. Lois Henderson read the minutes with the collection following. The roll call for this week was "One way our family serves pork". All 12 girls answered the question with most of them favoring pork chops.
The discussion was on pork and pork cookery which proved to be quite interesting. Afterwards a delicious luncheon of spare ribs was prepared

Q. Should I stop watching television to save my eyes?
 A. No. Your eyes were made to use. The old belief that you can save your eyes by not using them is false. Resting your eyes may give you more comfortable vision but it will not save them.
