

U.C.W. members enjoy Yule dinner, program

The U.C.W. of Trinity United Church held their Christmas dinner on Wednesday evening, December 10 at the church. About 40 ladies sat down to dinner. The evening was chaired by president Mrs. G. McKenzie. Grace was said by Miss Dorothy Simmons.

The program, under the leadership of Mrs. Hugh Patterson, dealt with Christmas across Canada interspersed with Christmas carols. Those taking part in the skit were Mrs. Lorne Youngblut, Mrs. R. Denny, Mrs. W. Coats, Mrs. C. Griess and Mrs. C. Rogvaldson.

The ladies brought gifts for the girls at Galt Training School, as many of these young people receive nothing from their families at Christmas.

Two car loads of ladies attended the Candle light service put on by the girls of Galt Training school on Friday, December 12.

Return Penny Bristow president of A.C.W.

The Anglican Church Women held their regular meeting on Wednesday, December 3, in the parish hall, with president Penny Bristow in the chair.

Opening was the Advent hymn, "Hark the Glad Sound", followed by an appropriate Scripture reading by Mrs. Joan Pratt and Mrs. Bristow. The meeting was well attended.

A successful year with catering proceeds and other projects enabled the ACW to purchase material to make new choir gowns, and take on a much-needed project, that of carpeting the church and hall. William Denny was present to show samples of the hard-wearing carpet to the members, and a suitable pattern was selected. The work should be completed before Christmas.

A note from Rev. D. Ditzsch, serving at Inuvik, Northwest Territories, was read, as well as a note of thanks from the choir and one from the nursing home, for gifts received. As a group, the members took their Corporate Communion on Sunday, December 7, at the 10:30 service.

The meeting was turned over to Rev. Dawson, in charge of the nominating committee for the election of the officers for 1970.

Those taking office are as follows: honorary president, Mrs. Gail Dawson; president, Mrs. Penny Bristow; 1st vice, Mrs. Lois Turkoz; 2nd vice, Mrs. Alice Wilkinson; recording secretary, Mrs. Doreen Lindsay; treasurer, Mrs. Joan Pratt; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mabel Denny; flowers and gifts, Mrs. Louise Lindsay; press reporter, Mrs. June Hunter.

Pageant, play at St. Alban's

St. Alban's Sunday School enjoyed a short program Sunday evening, climaxed by the arrival of Santa Claus with oranges and candies for all.

A traditional Christmas pageant was presented by a group of students under John Laid's direction. In contrast was a modern play put on by Joe Bray's class, depicting a modern home when a new baby arrives.

Life membership highlights Christmas meeting of W.I.

Members and friends of Dublin Women's Institute met at the new home of Mrs. Calvin McIntyre, Blue Springs Road, Navasagawa, on Thursday evening for their annual Christmas party. The recreation room was the setting for the meeting, and was nicely decorated, complete with tree, and the ladies sat around the glowing fireplace.

Mrs. M. McCullough presided over the opening numbers and a short business period. Mrs. M. Hunter acted as secretary for the meeting relieving the hostess, Mrs. McIntyre.

Roll call was answered by "Where I expect to spend Christmas". Many ladies expected to be home to welcome their families, some going to parental homes, and others elsewhere.

Leaders for the 4H Training School will be Mrs. F. McCarron and Mrs. W. Lasby. "Separates for Summer" is the theme. Leaders will attend the school in Milton in mid-January.

From a gaily decorated Christmas tree, gifts were distributed to everyone, and many learned for the first time who their pen pal for the year really was.

A buffet supper convened by Mrs. B. Rennie, Mrs. E. W. Pierce, and Mrs. N. Douglas was served, and consisted of all kinds of good food, including Christmas cookies and cake, and all enjoyed a sociable time around the tables.

There were over 30 members and guests present to enjoy this fine evening, and each was presented with a pretty corsage. Mrs. William Frank, as courtesy convener, on behalf of everyone thanked the hostess, Mrs. McIntyre, and all who had planned such a delightful Christmas party, and wished everyone the compliments of the season.

One night blitz

With a new start and a new name, the Ability Fund will benefit from a one-night blitz in Acton early in February.

Ability Fund? It's the new name for the March of Dimes.

There hasn't been a canvass in Acton since 1967, but Mrs. Stanley Crisp is setting up the organization here for this year's campaign, and the first captain's meeting will be held in January.

Posters, place mats, and coin banks will all be available but the bulk of the money always comes from the one-night blitz.

The date is set for Monday, February 2.

Turkey dinner I.O.D.E.

The Duke of Devonshire Chapter I.O.D.E. had their turkey dinner at the home of Mrs. W. J. Beatty on Tuesday, Dec. 2. A happy time was enjoyed by all present.

The hostesses were Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Heller and Mrs. Bowles. Mrs. Elliott was at the piano for a sing song after dinner.

A short business meeting was conducted by Regent Mrs. Lidka. One new member, Mrs. Parker, took the oath of the Order.

Mrs. Young thanked the hostesses on behalf of the members. A gift exchange was enjoyed.

Two members who are not usually able to attend were able to come. All welcomed Mrs. Leslie and Mrs. Agar.

Officer talks

At last Thursday's meeting of the Y's Men, Doug Ormsby of Milton O.P.P. talked on the breathalyzer laws and answered questions.
