HAPPY PINNIES
 It was happy pinning on the face of Mary Cloutier after bowling in the Caroline Garden Centre league last Monday. She beat husband Al by 2 pins and the reason for the smile was, a new incident in the result. Dennis Cooks of the Acton Lanes team in the Major league is out for the balance of the season, result of a weekend skating accident. Rookie John "Winston" Chishill has been drafted from the minors to fill the vacant spot seems as if Don Gartin is taking a sabbatical from his two boys, Eric and Charles the two in the V.B.C. Bantams. Reason being, the boys on account of their bowling proclivities have their name in the bowling news quite often while Don who bowls in the "Major's" is overshadowed by his teammates and seldom makes the headlines. We point the finger however, that Don is an old pro and a solid bowler who aka and gives no quarter but always gives it a good go. When the chips are down it's usually Don who supplies the winning drive and punch for his Reliable Taxi team and his efforts often spell the difference between a win or a loss. So there you are, Don, I hope this column takes you off the hook with Eric and Eddy. Ye wekkum.
 The Caroline Garden Centre league held their Christmas party at the Robertson Recreation Hall and from all accounts the joint was jumpin' and bustin' out at the teams last Saturday evening. Needless to say, a good time was had by all. Likewise the Beardmore League affair at the Legion Hall last Friday night was also an unqualified success. The staffs of the Acton and Woodbridge I.G.A. stores included a bowling party in their pre-Christmas celebrations last Sunday. Dave Gould and Isabel Ivany 302. For Spoilers it was Al Norris 612 (263), John Gilbert 342 and Bill Manto 208. STRIKES At Youth Bowling Council

By Margot Matheson

Dec. 13: Don't forget, all you V.B.C. bowlers. This coming Saturday is our "Christmas Roll". Don't be late and as you know, no bowling ahead for this event. If there is a great for you, Glen McKenna of our Junior and Senior Division deserves one. Practising lucky Friday night. Glen stopped a flying puck with his mouth and required medical attention. Despite his aching teeth and swollen mouth that made him look like an Ullang, Glen bowed up Saturday afternoon and bowled with his team.
 In the Well Wishes and Birthday Department this week, celebrating the happy occasions are Junior bowlers Jimmy Krapek Dec. 20 and Christine Pothier also Dec. 20. Bowling games of 112 back to back made Bantams Rebe Boudfield our most consistent bowler this week. Now for the bowling action reports!
 With the Bantams Bowling this week the Orioles took two games from the Sparrows. Blue Jays did the same to the Cardinals. Wrens also wrapped it up by taking both games from the Robins. Both those games were close, the first one won by only three pins and the second by seven pins.
 In the second shift the Doves took one game and totals from the Seventine. Sockays took two games but lost totals to the Aces.

 The "Top Ten" this week were Bruce Bull 706 (328), Larry Knight 651 (256), Dave Pink 605 (320), Wade Knight 600 (223), Steve Van Wert 599 (241), Margot Matheson 597 (241), Martin Lavole 591 (232), George Adams 590 (256), Glen McKenna 569 (217), Allen Green 561 (203).
