CORRESPONDENCE. их ин. п. q. Will you kindly give me apace in the HERALD for a few lines. Have just returned from visiting Mr. S. Little and other friends in Jamestown N. Y. Jamestown on Lake Chautauque, near the seat of the famous O. Y. B. S. While there I mat a number of people who had at one time been residents of Halton, These all sent mer-Halton. As it is not possible for me to Lee these friends personally I thought that, perhaps through your courteey, and the medium of your paper they might all be reached. Mr. Little's Halton friends will be glad to know that he is prosperous and wall pleased with the land of his adoption, Mr. Little has got so far as to talk of the Presidential election as "our election." I also met Dr. Merideth who told me he at one time lived in Georgetown, and wished to be remembered to Mr. McKingen and lated an independent fortune, and is one of the prominent men of the place, I met
