ANDERSON—In Esquesing, on Tuesday, December 10th, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anderson, a daughter.

The Georgetown Herald.

WEDNESDAY EVEG., DEC. 18, 1901

It is understood that the Canadian Mounted Rifles will sail for South Africa on January 10th.

WE are pleased to note the great success of the Ontario Winter Fair held at Guelph last week. It was so successful that there is already talk of enlarging the already very large buildings.

THE Privy Council's decision, sustaining the Manitoba prohibitory law means that every province in the Dominion has power to prohibit the sale, though not the importation or manufacture of liquor.

THE TOWNSHIP COUNCIL.

Everything is so very quiet in connection with municipal matters in the township, that we wouldn't be surprised if it would turn out to be a case acclamation all round.

NEXT YEAR'S COUNCIL.

WE understand that it is the intention of the Reeve and all the members of the present Council to offer themselves for re-election.

If we were to say that the Council of 1901 had made no mistakes, the members of that important body would simply conclude that we were poking fun at them. The Herald's policy, however, has been not to magnify the Council's mistakes (for it is after all easy to find fault) but rather to seek to encourage them in any efforts put forth in directions that are plainly in line with the corporation's best interests.

The department of streets and walks always comes in for a fair share of public criticism. The work done this year represents the expenditure of a large amount of money—larger than was anticipated at the opening of the year, and much more than can be spent next year. It is conceded that the work, on the whole, has been exceedingly well done, although an item or two have come in for some criticism.

The Waterworks department has also been voted increased expenditure, the expense incurred being largely at the reservoir, where the water supply received some necessary attention. Of course the season has been a very favorable one, but had it been dry, as last year was, the work at the reservoir would have made the water supply very much better. It is to be regretted that in connection with this department a law-suit is now pending.

From hard luck rather than from bad management, the Park administration has not been gratifying. The 24th races never had brighter promise of success, but the unfavorable weather caused a postponement, and while the races were an unprecedented success, the receipts fell far short of meeting expenses. The result is that the bank surplus has vanished. It is now seen that the races included one event too many—a mistake that will no doubt be guarded against in future. It should be stated here that over $60.00 of the proceeds was spent in Park improvements.

A considerable sum of money has been spent about the Cemetery in a substantial wire fence, and a tile vail that has frequently been heard of during the session. Whatever difference of opinion there may be as to the need for the latter, it cannot but be observed that the Cemetery itself is not in a creditable condition, and next year's Council will require, for the sake of the town's good name, to give this matter their attention.

We will refer to only one more feature, namely, the Electric Light System. The Council, we believe, has administered this department with less passes than any other. At the beginning of the year it was understood that the Council and Electric Light Company would both do all in their power to put the system on a more satisfactory basis. The company claim that they have made every reasonable effort to have a conference and agree to terms with the Council, but have been practically unable to do either.

The Council has certainly responded for their readiness to negotiate with the Arnold Glove Company; for that effort on behalf of the Electric and for their spirit of friendliness toward manufactures.

Published is a statement of assessed pavements since 1900 that will be interesting for comparison:

FOR THE CHILDREN.

Christmas Entertainments That Will Add to Their Happiness.

There is nothing to which the Sunday School children look forward with more pleasure than their annual entertainments usually held about Christmas. For some weeks the schools have been making preparation for these pleasant gatherings and Sunday School workers would appreciate a large attendance of parents and friends of the good work. Here are some of the dates:

FRIDAY, Dec. 20—Presbyterian. A programme of choruses, recitations, &c., by the children.

WEDNESDAY 25th—Baptist. Service of song, "The Birthday of the King," recitations, &c., and Christmas tree.

MONDAY 30th. Congregational. Tea will be served for the children and friends. Programme by the children.

FRIDAY, Jan. 3.—Methodist. Tea from 6 to 8. Programme of recitations, choruses, &c. after Church of England S. S. entertainment has been postponed to January. Date will be given in a later issue.

COUNTY COURT.

The December sittings of the County Court and General Sessions of the Peace were held at Milton last week, His Honor, Judge Gorham, presiding.

The members of the grand jury were: James L. Warren (foreman), Jas. Adamson, John Cameron, John T. Hannant, W. N. Scott, Wm. G. Sinclair, R. J. Allen, J. C. Featherstone, Jas. A. Jackson, Wm. A. Shields, Jas. D. Strong.

The cases tried were Butt v. Lakehurst Sanitarium, Judgment for plaintiff by consent for $50; Long v. Leach, dismissed.

The only criminal case was, The King v. Green. Green was a young man from Limehouse accused of uncoupling cars. The charge was dismissed.

The Appleyard case was postponed to Jan. 15th.

Georgetown Debentures sell For 102.40

The debentures for the Arnold loan have been purchased by Hanson & Co., of Toronto at 102.40.

SUCCESS OF THE MARKET.

But it must be Made Necessary to Pay Visit to Guelph Permanent.

The success of the market buildings has been very gratifying. It has been proven a good thing for both the town and the country people. We doubt, however, again remind all interested, that if it is to be permanent, always stop to the conclusion, for the best, most qualified. Last Thursday there were large, attractive loads, with satisfactory quantities of better class eggs. Vegetables and poultry arrived at prices. Some of the latter sold as high as $1.50, while $1 was asked for the best, with no buyers at this figure. Hay sold at $8 to $9.

Prices to-day are about as follows: turkeys 9 cents to 11; ducks 10 to 12, chickens 35 to 60; lamb 8 to 10, butter 10 to 19c.

Grain prices are about as last week, wheat being a shade weaker.

Monday will be Market Day, next week.

CORRESPONDENCE.

An Esquesing Agricultural Student at the O. A. C. Writes About Township Fairs.

EDITOR HERALD,

Dear Sir:—It was my privilege to listen to an address by F. W. Hodson, Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa, on a subject in which many of your readers are no doubt interested:—"The Improvement of the Agricultural Exhibition."

That many of our Township Fairs are merely struggling for existence most people will admit. Many improvements were suggested but I shall mention only a few which it occurred to me could be easily adopted. First to promote fairness in judging Mr. Hodson stated that when applied for by any association he or Mr. Crossman, superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, would send out trained and expert judges. Further that these judges would explain their decisions and point out the merits and defects in the articles and animals judged. Not only would these decisions be more satisfactory than the arbitrary decisions of boards and if not incapable, at least often partial, judges but also the explanation of the decisions would aid exhibitors in preparing for other fairs and in the general improvement of their stock.

Many methods of giving to a large number of people some direct interest in the Exhibition were suggested. At ten fairs in the Ottawa Valley the following plan was tried and gave good results: A number of special prizes were offered. A prize to boys under sixteen who from a collection of apples of eighteen varieties could select and properly name the largest number of apples; a prize to school children exhibiting the larger number of noxious weeds properly named and mounted; a prize for the best collection of insects harmful and beneficial. According to an Act of Parliament, which however is not enforced, each agricultural society is required to offer a prize for the best essay on some agricultural subject. It was suggested that these prizes be offered as a method of increasing the interest in and of greatly increasing the benefit to be derived from the Agricultural Exhibitions.

It was stated that the chief cause of the wonderful success of the Guelph Winter Fair was its combination of amusement and improvement. In other words, that the explanation of their decisions given by the judges and the numerous lectures delivered in connection with the exhibits were one of the strongest, if not the strongest, attraction of the Fair.

Allow me to add one more suggestion, which may be peculiarly appropriate for our own Township. I have been amused and interested, though I cannot add instructed, by the long continued and as yet unlocked contention for supremacy in tug-of-war. From experience I may state that it is almost impossible in this contest to get a satisfactory decision between two almost evenly matched teams—it is merely a matter of who gets "the drop." Would not a series of athletic sports as: a half mile, quarter mile and hundred yards run, standing broad jump, running broad jump, putting sixteen pound shot and twenty-one pound shot, would not these contests give a better opportunity for a display of athletic powers, permit a large number to take part and also be more interesting than the tug-of-war contest?

Mr. Hodson is preparing a bulletin on the "Improvement of the Agricultural Exhibitions," but as this will not be issued for some time I thought some of his suggestions might be of interest to your readers.

Yours sincerely,
A STUDENT.

O. A. C., Dec. 9th, 1901.
