MAN OF A GREAT DEED

PASSING OF A GREAT ENGLISH PARLIAMENTARY DEBATER.

Mr. William Vernon Harcourt, a statesman, a publicist, a patriot, a leader of the Liberal party in England, a man of a great deed.

After a political career embracing more than forty years, Mr. Harcourt, who was born in 1828, passed away on the 21st inst. at the age of 85. He was a man of a great deed.

ONE GREAT DEED

It is safe to say of Mr. William Vernon Harcourt that rarely has a man of such quietude and reserve left behind him so few lasting monuments. To the question, "What has he done for his country or for England?" his officials will be puzzled to return an answer.

Lord Howton, Harcourt's private secretary, writes: "I have known him for 25 years, and he was a man of a great deed."
