Synopsis of Canadian North-West

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

Any even numbered section of Dominion Land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, or any part thereof, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or by a person of twenty-one years of age, or by a single man, or by a widow.

Any person may make a claim on the public lands of a Dominion Land Agency or on the lands of a company which has a leasehold interest in the land in dispute.

Entry by proxy may, however, be made by a person who is the sole head of a family.

The conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

1. A man and his family's residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

2. A homesteader may, if he so desires, purchase his claim at any time before the third year, and pay therefor the amount of $1.25 per acre.

3. A homesteader may, if he so desires, make a claim for a larger area than the above, and pay therefor the amount of $1.25 per acre.

4. The same "variety" plan as the preceding plan, but for a larger area, and for a longer time, and for a higher price per acre.

5. A homesteader intending to perform his homesteading in accordance with the above plans, and desiring to sell his claim, may do so by giving written notice to the Agent for the district of such intention.

6. A homesteader's claim should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Gatineau, in intention to apply for a patent.
