buildings in the way have been moved back and permanent wall laid where the old board walk remained for so long.
The walk is much better than before.

The Action Free Press last week said the Oakville Star was removing to larger quarters. It has become a habit with the Free Press to name the Star instead of The Record. And we are not putting it in the category of the Record, as it is the largest and best power press in town or county at the present time.

—Held a successful meeting of the Action Free Press last week.
