Upper Norval.

Presented to Miss Stubbs.

On Monday evening about fifty of the people of Upper Norval & No. 2 Chilcotin sat at the home of Mrs. Wm.
Stubbs, Upper Norval, to say good-bye to their teacher, Miss Mabel Stubbs. The following address was read by Master J.
Walkins and Miss Stubbs was presented with a beautiful cushion by Miss May McMekin:

Dear Miss Stubbs. It was with much regret that we learned from you your intention to leave us in our service. It is only two years since you came into our midst as teacher. During your term of teaching, you have performed your duties faithfully and cheerfully and your efforts have met with every success. We feel that we cannot let you leave us, without expressing in some way, the high regard we have for you as a friend. We shall miss you, therefore, to accept the looks as a slight token of our affection and appreciation of your work.
We hope you may derive much pleasure from our gifts, and may it result in the pleasant associations among us and assure you of our satisfaction with you as teacher and our high regard for you as a friend. Signed on behalf of the committee.

Miss Stubbs made a fitting reply. Mr.
Bird in a brief address told how satisfied the people of the section had been with the work of Miss Stubbs as teacher, and expressed the hope that her successor would prove as satisfactory. The rest of the evening was spent in general socializing.
A dainty lunch was provided. After dancing "old wives" will still be with us until the people separated for their homes.

Card of Thanks.

I hereby desire to express my sincere thanks for the many kindness and sympathy extended to me by friends and relatives in my recent bereavement caused by the death of my beloved husband.

Miss CHAR. VALENTINE.
