- Go to the Sunday School excursion to Burlington Beach to-morrow and help give the "Widow" an enjoyable outing. You were once one yourself.

- "Auntie, did you ever get a proposal after Uncle?" A gentleman asked me to marry him on the telephone. I told him he had the wrong number.

- The Russians show such a disposition to come back and repossess lost positions that we wouldn't be surprised if they take vodka again.

- Owing to unfavorable weather the Patriotic Garden Party which was to have been held at Limehouse on Friday evening, July 2nd had to be postponed.

- Some minor cyclones are to get through during the month of October. They continue to ignore the speed limit in town. This is the final warning we have been given to.

- Some splendid features are being put on at the Rex Theatre just now. It is one of the places you can depend upon getting full value in entertainment for the amount invested.

- The new suburban Hallway station has been completed all but the painting. It is a fine looking substantial building and reflects credit on the contractors Messrs Wells & Gray of Toronto.

- During the recent disturbances the body of Alexander Joe, Deputy Sheriff of Peel, was found in a state of extreme dismemberment, although the building did not take fire. A fat beast was killed but other animals in the building were unharmed.

- Mr. J. H. Dean has secured the agency for the Italian Stereo-Tension. A clever device which "makes the Ford car like a big sir" and gives the steering the same action as the worn-out road on high priced cars. Price only $5.00.

Our Next Big Event.

The Drummers are back with us again for their annual outing on July 30-31st. Posters and programs have been issued and the two days are looked forward to with the enthusiasm of citizens of town and surrounding country. The big patriotic parade will be a feature and will itself be worth the price of a button. The Drummers have always enjoyed a large patronage on account of the excellent program and large amounts of fun furnished for the small sum of admission.

This year, and doubly so, serving as a repayment of money from the outfitting on July 30-31, will be donated to the Canadian Hospital Fund. Be on hand, enjoy the days and help a good cause.

LATEST NEWS ABOUT HOME

Overseas High School.
Arol O'Neill and Harvey Wilson have been promoted from the Lower school to the Upper school. The Lower school students who wrote on the Lower school entrance to Normal assumption will be transferred after the results of that examination appear.

Exe. Theory.
"Turner's" Program "Who Pays?" serial. Also "Patsy's Weekly" and "Colored Jewel" or comedy.

Holiday.—The Old Curiosity Shop, Hepworth's Pictorial Novel as imminent. "The Story of the War," by the War Players.

Movie.—"The Red Cross." Georgetown Patriotic League, forwarded last week, to the Ed. Dept. Society to help in the following:

100 seats, 14 chairs, 24 pillow slips, 21 per cent extra, 412 handkerchiefs, 100 towels, 18 night shirts and 3 bed sheets.

Orange Festival.
The members of L. O. L. No. 24K, Georgetown, headed by the 20th Regt. Band, marched to the station on Monday morning and entrained for Brampton where they spent the day at the big Orange demonstration held there. The crowd is reported to have been the largest ever assembled in Brampton. All had a splendid outing and returned home by a special train about 8 p.m.

Carden Party of Terra Cotta.
A grand garden party under the auspices of the Methodist Church, Terra Cotta, will be held at the home of W. G. Marshall, Terra Cotta, on Friday July 16. An excellent program will be rendered by W.H. J. White, comedian; Miss Mary, vocal entertainers; Carl W. Adams, Miss Jean Adams and Miss Williams Citizens Band. Tea will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. Admission 50 cents. Children 15¢.

Purchase Electric Road.
A report has gained circulation to the effect that the hydro-electric power corporation had purchased the electric line known as the Toronto suburban railway, with the grading and track. The road and bridge across the line will be finished without delay and be in operation this fall. When spoken to on the subject at Toronto, Sir Adam Beck said that the purchase was under consideration but that nothing definite has yet been done.

Strange Chicken Disease.
A strange disease has recently been noticed by some of the chicken fanciers at Clinton. Chickens seem to fall ill, all clutched, chicken seems to stand, then a few inmates fall dead, or seem to lose the use of their limbs, at least before expiring. One man has lost eighteen fine birds, another seven and another nine. They cannot fathom this strange malady. All the chickens thus dying have reached the size when they would dress at about one and a half pounds.
