Now Is the Time
To buy the lumber for the work you intend doing next year, our lumber has advanced very much in the past three months and is going higher because of the shortage owing to the scarcity of labor and high cost of operating in bush and mill. We have a large stock on hand, purchased before the rise, which we are selling at the old price. Be forehanded and buy now and save money.

Legal Matrimony
It Was Found Essential to a Fortune.
By F. A. MITCHEL.
"Either you shall marry Helen Gray or I will leave the property to your son, Walter. The elder Travers was in my favor, the other in favor of Edgar. If within one month you are not wedded to Helen, I will destroy the will leaving all to you. On your wedding day I will destroy the one leaving the estate to Edgar, making you sole beneficiary."
This spoke Martin Travers to his son, Walter. The elder Travers was a man of strong will, and his son had inherited it from him. The fortune had been accumulated by the father and his partner, William Gray, largely by Travers' dogged perseverance. Gray was a miller and Travers in time came to own the mill and was necessary to the business. Travers had then forced him out. Gray had become a miser, and Travers had after his death, in his son, Walter, and his partner, William Gray, largely by Travers' dogged perseverance.
