

Readhead is Warden
At the meeting of County Council held at Millon yesterday afternoon, Mr. Charles Readhead, the popular Mayor of Nelson Township, was elected Warden of the County of Hastings for the year 1917. He defeated his opponent, Rev. J. C. Readhead, by a vote of 10 to 8.

Baptist Church Annual Meeting
The annual reunion and business meeting of the Georgetown Baptist Church was held last Thursday evening, and while the attendance was diminished by the stormy weather and the prevailing sickness, the proceedings were marked by good order and general happiness.

164th Batt. Concert
There was a large attendance at the town hall last Wednesday evening when members of the 164th Battalion put on an excellent entertainment. Capt. Chisholm made a splendid chairman. In his introductory remarks he stated that the 164th were getting a draft of men from the 164th Battalion, to make up their number and would in all probability leave for England in February.

Limehouse
The annual meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian Church was held on Wednesday evening last. There was a good attendance and the services were very gratifying. The amount raised for the year was $194.45, and for all purposes a most successful year.

Church News
The annual meeting of the Baptist Church, Georgetown, on Sunday, January 21st, Rev. James Strachan of Galt will conduct the service at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Special music by the choir. Everybody welcome.

Church News
The League will convene on Monday evening next, subject: "The League in the World." The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Readhead, 111 St. George Street.

Church News
The final collection of papers and magazines to complete the card for the League will be made on Saturday, next, January 27th. Kindly have your contribution ready to be called for between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Put your papers in envelopes and it will save the work of the Committee in sorting.

Military Notes
The 164th Battalion and Dufferin Battalion, under the command of Major Dyer, were inspected last Thursday at Victoria Park, Hamilton, by Major General F. L. Leppard, Inspector-General for Eastern Canada, and made a splendid showing.

Terra Cotta
The 164th Battalion, under the command of Major Dyer, were inspected last Thursday at Victoria Park, Hamilton, by Major General F. L. Leppard, Inspector-General for Eastern Canada, and made a splendid showing.
