THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

WEDNESDAY EVENING APRIL 11, 1917

The citizens of Ontario have once more passed on to the Ottawa government their recommendation that there should be a central place for hanging, and that such a person is recommended to death should be taken. As long as the death penalty remains, every precaution should be taken to remove the execution from the sphere where world curiosity has a chance to run wild.

IN OUR COUNCIL is going to continue late sessions we would suggest they open the proceedings with the following: "We want to know if the morning" "No, but that something had been done since the 10th of September, however that selection from Grand opens "Hill, Hill, the Gang's all here" About all that remains of the rollicking good time is "Add Lang's" and "Good Night Lady."

Military Notes.

Arrangements are now being made by the Department of Militia for the summer training camps to be held in the district. It is understood to be the intention of the authorities to have about two thousand troops at Niagara and about twelve thousand at Camp Borden. How they will raise the troops is not clear but arrangements are being made on this score. Troops will in all probability move to the summer camps on May 15.
A card from Corp. D. D. Cole, written from Montreal, dated Friday, to the "Herald" stated "Bill on our way East, Bill, Hendrick A. Fraser, an old Georgetown boy and son of Mr. W. A. Fraser, the well known lawyer, called his parents at Toronto, on Thursday, that he had been wounded. He said he had received a flesh wound in the right arm while serving on Ottawa was to the effect that he had been slightly wounded in the right arm by a stray bullet. He received a letter from him in which he told of his work. It is with the Canadian Engineers and he is in charge of a company of 300 men cable laying. He said he was hard work but he was not at all ill and the shells constantly falling around him did not seem to bother him. He is a third year student at the School of Artillery in England. He is a member of the Junior Argos and the Capital rugby team.
